

Questions

Technical and educational assistance has included 100 scholars brought to Canada for courses of study from the West Indies Federation, British Guiana and British Honduras, since 1958. During the same period 41 Canadian teachers and advisers have been sent to the area as follows:

Teachers

Year of Commencing Assignment	Recipient Country	Subject
1958	Trinidad	1 vocational education adviser
1960	Jamaica	1 teacher trainer for maths and science
		2 teacher trainers
	St. Kitts	1 shop director
		2 vocational instructors
	St. Lucia	1 teacher trainer
	St. Vincent	1 teacher trainer for maths
1961	British Guiana	1 teacher of electricity
	Jamaica	1 primary teacher trainer
1962	Barbados	1 teacher trainer
	British Guiana	1 lecturer in mechanical engineering
		1 instructor in electricity
	Dominica	1 primary teacher trainer
	Grenada	1 teacher of industrial arts
	St. Lucia	1 primary teacher trainer

Advisers

1958	Trinidad	1 forestry adviser
		1 housing adviser
		1 geological survey adviser
		1 fisheries adviser
		1 soil survey adviser
		1 statistical adviser
1959	Jamaica	1 harbour management adviser
	Trinidad	1 film unit adviser
		1 harbour survey adviser
		1 broadcasting engineer
		1 broadcasting adviser
		1 postal adviser
		1 legal drafting adviser
		1 postal services adviser
1 harbour survey adviser
1960	British Honduras	1 land surveyor
	Jamaica	1 mechanical tabulation adviser
	St. Lucia	2 soil surveyors
	Trinidad	1 housing adviser
1961	British Honduras	1 forest adviser
1962	British Honduras	3 instrument men

2. No area has been specially selected for a major Canadian aid effort although in dollar terms the largest recipients of Canadian assistance have been India and Pakistan.

3. Answered by reply to question 1.

4. While the Canadian government cannot direct the form or content of assistance extended by private organizations such as universities, corporations, co-operatives, trade unions and voluntary societies, nevertheless many such organizations have consulted and received advice from the appropriate federal authorities concerning assistance to the Caribbean area.

GOLF CLUBHOUSE, CAPE BRETON HIGHLANDS PARK

Question No. 831—Mr. Muir (Cape Breton North and Victoria):

1. On what date were tenders called for the construction of a new golf clubhouse at the Cape Breton Highlands national park?

[Mr. Stewart.]