

BUSINESS OF THE HOUSE

Mr. McIlraith: Mr. Speaker, tomorrow the house will be asked to consider Item No. 82 on today's order paper, second reading of the medicare bill.

Mr. Speaker, before you announce the adjournment proceedings, I understand a wish has been expressed by some hon. members that we dispense with the usual adjournment proceedings tonight, and I understand there is agreement on that.

Business of the House

Mr. Deputy Speaker: Does the house give unanimous consent to dispense with the adjournment debate?

Some hon. Members: Agreed.

At ten o'clock the house adjourned, without question put, pursuant to standing order.
