

Weights and Measures Act

rather than to merely limit ourselves to this type of bill.

I feel that the reforms would be more administrative than legislative in character, and that is why, although I accept the principle as stated, we cannot readily accept the passing of this bill.

It is our duty to advise the house of our reservations concerning the bill. Besides, Senator Hart in the United States introduced a similar measure expressing very much the same point of view as the one we are now studying, and its application proved the extreme complexity of the problem, as well as—

Mr. Speaker: Order.

Mr. Choquette: —the inevitable difficulties.

Mr. Speaker: Order. I am sorry to interrupt the hon. member, but I must remind him that it is six o'clock.

[English]

At six o'clock the house adjourned, without question put, pursuant to standing order.
