

expend his cash at home by laying in a superfluous stock, either on speculation or for future use.

The steamboat's charge for passage to Fort Yale or Douglas is about £1. 10s., and the passenger finds his own food, or pays 4s. a meal at the table of the boat. The cost of a trip to "Cariboo" is at least £6; but it would be barely prudent to attempt it with less than £10 at starting.

Steady men willing to work will quickly find employment at good wages; they who go with the intention of settling for years in the colony, not expecting to make their fortunes at once, are the most likely to succeed, in the mines particularly. This feeling, of "contented with little," assists a man materially, and the "runabouts," when they hear the amount of his "pile," at the end of the season, call him "lucky."

8 MII 62

ROBERT HARDWICKE, PRINTER, 152, PICCADILLY, LONDON.

GUIDE BOOK FOR BRITISH COLUMBIA.

THE Wonders of the
GOLD DIGGINGS
Of British Columbia,
BY A
SUCCESSFUL DIGGER,
WHO HAS MADE HIS FORTUNE THERE, AND
ADVISES OTHERS TO GO AND MAKE THEIRS.

CONTENTS:		PAGES
CHAPTER I.—A FEW WORDS ON BRITISH COLUMBIA		1
CHAPTER II.—THE RUSH FROM CALIFORNIA		10
CHAPTER III.—FACTS FOR GOLD DIGGERS		15
CHAPTER IV.—LIFE AT THE DOUGLAS		25
CHAPTER V.—ARTICLES INDISPENSABLE TO THE EMIGRANT		35
CHAPTER VI.—ROUTES TO BRITISH COLUMBIA		45
USEFUL "ON DIT"		55

PRICE SIXPENCE.

London: DEAN & SON, 11, Ludgate Hill.

SOLE BY ALL BOOK-SELLERS, & AT ALL RAILWAY STATIONS.