

Oct.

exposed to
same time;
that sallied
to oppose in our ground
ning, but
reat reluc-
s of war.

can obtain,
wounded,
dred; the
ained, we all in com-
to the ad-
had one
nts killed;
Arnold,
be, Lieut.
Brigade
a that part y the Ge-
his Aid de
nd Capt.
unknown.
eral Mont-
both his head: his t day, an l, and he Thursday
his body
were not aintenance
nd placid
imated it.
ll limbed,
ul, manly
ary love,
he whole
onourable,
death of
, but as
eral; the y by such ive good-
art might
his sen-
on every
that un-
ainly dis-
heart from

cers were
and wel
ng; the
e. Recol-
I dined
whom in oner, but my turn
made

1776. Political Character of Mr. Edmund Burke. 525 made prisoner also. Capt. Law treated me with great politeness and ingenuity.

Jan. 1st. This whole day in the Seminary. The first day I ever knew confinement. I hope I shall bear it with becoming fortitude.

Major M^r Kenzie brought General Montgomery's knee buckles and Mr. M^r Pherfon's gold broach, and made a present of them to me, which I highly value for the sake of their late worthy owners.

Major Returns Jonathan Meigs

