WHERE'S THE BOY DETECTIVE?

Chance for Willie Linn to Save His Manager a Cool Hundred.

A warrant is in the hands of the police for a man who, representing himself as Mr. Johnson, manager of "The Moonlight Maids" theatrical company, secured, with a view to purchase, a seven-stone diamond pin and an emerald and diamond ring from Abraham Brodsky, 138 1-2 West King-street, on Wednesday.

Johnson was to come back at night to pay for the jewelry or return it. When he did not show up a warrant was taken out by Brodsky yesterday morning for his arrest, charging him with obtaining the goods under false pretences.

W.F.M.S. OFFICERS.

Mrs. Shortreed Elected President of the Useful Organization.

The following officers were elected at yesterday morning's session of the Women's Foreign Missionary Society: President, Mrs. Shortreed; first vice-president, Mrs. William McLaren; second vice-president, Mrs. A. Telfer; third vice-president, Mrs. Andrew Jeffrey; fourth vice-president, Mrs. J. C. Hamilton; fifth vice-president, Mrs. G. H. Robinson; recording secretary, Miss E. Clark; corresponding secretary, Miss Martin; home secretary, Miss Margaret Reid; mission hand secretary, Mrs. J. C. Robertson; foreign work secretaries—India and Formosa, Mrs. Bell; Honan, Mrs. Joseph Henderson; Northwest, Miss Craig; Treasurer, Miss George; assistant treasurer, Mrs. T. J. McGilivray. The next annual meeting will take place at Ottawa.

EASY WAY TO EXTRADITE.

WINDSOR, May 7.—(Special.)—This afternoon Detective Mahoney escorted from Detroit to Windsor John Tuck, who is wanted in Sarina on a charge of stealing $40. Living in St. Louis, the immigration authorities deported him as undesirable, an arrangement that saves extradition.

$2.00 Buffalo and Return. On C. P. R. excursion next Saturday tickets good going here 9.30 a.m. returning from Buffalo on special train at 11 p.m. Saturday, or all regular trains until following Monday. Get your tickets at the city office, corner King and Yonge-streets. 345

THE WEATHER

OBSERVATORY, Toronto, May 7.—(8 p.m.)—The southern disturbance, which developed early last night, but is now diminishing again and it is centered over the lake region. Another depression of importance covers Alberta. Rain has fallen heavily over Ontario and Western Quebec, accompanied by strong winds and gales. Elsewhere in Canada the weather has been fine, except that local thunderstorms have occurred in Alberta. Very warm conditions still prevail in the western provinces.

Lower Lakes and Georgian Bay.—Strong winds, shifting to north and west; cool and showery; clearing at night. Ottawa Valley and Upper and Lower St. Lawrence.—Strong easterly winds; cool and rainy. Gulf and Maritime.—Strong winds and moderate local gales; easterly; cool with rain. Superior.—Moderate to fresh winds; most northerly; fair, a little higher temperature. Manitoba.—Fine and warm to-day; local thunderstorms. Saskatchewan.—Mostly fair and warm, but a few local thunderstorms. Alberta.—Mostly fair, turning a little cooler by night.

WEST TORONTO CAMPAIGN.

H. C. Tomlin Holds Inaugural Meeting in Brockton.

H. C. Tomlin read his address at his first campaign meeting in Sheridan's Hall last night. He and other speakers repudiated for the special benefit of the press the idea that they were independent Conservatives. They were plain everyday Conservatives who wished to choose their own candidates.

Roy Lamphere, who is under arrest in connection with the crime, has been cleared that Mrs. Guinness had urged him to insure his life in her favor, asserting that she had offered to pay the premiums on such a policy which she believed that letters which she had received from Mrs. Guinness and also $800 in money. After his arrival here he raised the question of his interest in the Farmers' State Bank of Iowa. We have had no word from him and have been working the fact that my father's body was in the morgue. We had a letter from Mrs. Guinness which was addressed to my father and read as follows: "I believe this letter was written for the purpose of throwing suspicion on the fact that I am a surety on your father's life. There is no trace of the $100, which he had in his possession in April of last year. I believe the woman killed my father and took his money."

Mysteriously Closed Room. Lamphere's statement about a closed room in the Guinness home, to which he was always denied admission, is partially corroborated by the evidence of Joseph Maxson, who was working on the farm when the murder took place on April 28. Maxson asserts that he had never been allowed access to the second story of the farm house, where the closed room was located.

Ask K. Helgelein of Mansfield, S.D., was again in conference with Dr. C. S. Mack, coroner of the county, to-day. The steps by which his brother became infatuated with the Indiana woman were canvassed once more, but only partial progress was made toward clearing the mystery. Helgelein told again of the secrecy with which his brother had shrouded his movements before his departure from South Dakota. Enough was evolved to show that advertisements for a matrimonial agency had been printed in Scandinavian papers in the Northwest, Helgelein asserting that a single sheet, printed in Norwegian and full of such notices, had been circulated among his acquaintances.

Used Marriage to Lure. The circumstances lead the investigators to believe that Mrs. Guinness established communication with her victim thru this agency, and the premise accounting for her relations with Ole B. Budsberg.

In a letter to one of her correspondents Mrs. Guinness wrote: "I am a Norwegian and have been in this country for 20 years. I live in Indiana, about miles from Chicago, and one mile north of Laporte. I am the sole owner of a nice home, pretty location. There are 75 acres of land, also all kinds of crops, improved land, apples, plums and currants. Am on a boulevard road and have a 12-roomed house, practically new; windmill and all modern improvements, situated in a beautiful suburb of Chicago, worth about $15,000."

It is too much for me to look after things, and things are not as I want them, anyway. My idea of them is to take a partner to whom I can trust and who will take care of them. I have no acquaintances of my own. I have decided that every applicant I have considered favorably must make a satisfactory reference. It is the best way for partners to keep away grafters who are always looking for a chance to get in. I have had experience with them as I can prove.

Now, if you think you are able in some way to put up $1000 cash, we can talk matters over personally. If you cannot, it is worth while to consider? I would not mind if you were a man, but I am tired of that and need a little rest in my home and near my children. I will close for this time and hope you will be in heavy with Mrs. Guinness and was crazy with jealousy.

UNKNOWN MEN ATTEMPT TO BREAK INTO MORGUE

THE BAIT OF DEATH.

"This is Mrs. Guinness' matrimonial ad with which her victims were lured to death."

PERSONAL.—Comely widow, who owns large farm in one of the finest districts in the Port Huron, Ind., desires to make the acquaintance of gentleman unusually well provided, with view of joining fortunes. No replies by letter considered unless sender is willing to follow answer with personal visit.

LAPORTE, Ind., May 7.—The identification of another of the bodies dug up on the Guinness farm, near here, as that of Ole S. Budsberg of Iowa, Wisconsin, and evidence that he, like Andrew Gogelein of Mansfield, S.D., had been brought into Mrs. Bella Guinness' net thru "matrimonial" advertisements, was one of the clarifying features of to-day's developments in the complication of the case. The identification of the bundle of bones and flesh of the remains of Budsberg was made by the man's sons, Matt and Oscar H. Budsberg, who arrived here this afternoon.

LAPORTE, Ind., May 7.—What the authorities have declared was an attempt to disturb the nine bodies dug up on the Guinness farm so that identification of the remains would be impossible, was made to-day. Two men, whose identity is not known, broke into the carriage house of the farm, where the bodies have been placed, but were driven away by the watchman before they could do any harm.

The day watchman at the farm of Daniel Heston said that the men claimed to be doctors and had attempted to justify their presence in the place on professional grounds, but they refused to go until they learned that Joseph Maxson, Mrs. Guinness' man of ever since he left his home in Walsail, England, papers please copy.

THURSDAY'S STORM

while some have not yet been occupied for the season.

One of the most serious features of the storm in the isolation of from 15 to 20 hours, some of which require to be reached by boat. The situation is somewhat unique in that a big part of the property between Queen-street and the lake front, and Woodbine and Leity-avenue, is lower than the lake shore and the huge waves pouring over the beach have deposited thousands of tons of water in the lower lands, which the present high level of the lake will permit to run away.

The advent of warm weather may not render the situation a desirable one. "I have lived practically all my life down here," said Wm. Gates, "and this is the worst ever. My children were at Kenilworth school and to-night when I went for them water was running over the sidewalk two feet deep, and I had to carry them home on my back."

The residence of Supt. James Gunn of the Toronto Street Railway, at the corner of Lee-avenue, was without power at the heavy pounding of the storm better almost than any of the others. Knight's concrete boat house, damaged at the last storm, was blown away yesterday and scarcely a vestige of it remains.

Damage at Sunnyside. Out at Sunnyside the storm evidently got in its "big digs" for there possibly more damage was caused than at any other point along the lake shore. Between Sunnyside and Humber Bay the Lake Shore-road, damaged to some extent by the last storm, was almost ruined, while the board walk, which was for the entire distance, while much of the roadway is also gone, and the tracks of the Mimico railway, a hurry call was sent to Mimico, where the seriousness of the situation, and a gang of men were despatched to the place.

At Mimico where the most serious roads were made at the time of the other storm, little harm was caused yesterday.

Lake Traffic Tied Up. The only vessel to arrive in port yesterday was the big grain barge Plymmer, en route from Fort William to Montreal, and she experienced great difficulty in making the entrance at the eastern gap.

The steamers Lakeside and Marquette were stormbound, the former at Port Dalhousie and the latter at Hamilton.

Damage at Niagara. NIAGARA-ON-THE-LAKE, Ont., May 7.—One of the severest storms in many years has been raging here all day and much damage has been done along the waterfront. The unusually high water in the Niagara River and Lake Ontario, caused by a high easterly wind played havoc with the boat houses and other property along the beach. The electric lighting houses were completely washed out, the garage nearby is nearly all gone, while the bathhouse went out several days ago.

High Water at Port Dalhousie. PORT DALHOUSIE, May 7.—(Special.)—Ed. W. Loney, general manager of the Bay of Quinte and Lake Ontario Navigation Company, has issued notices to the effect that the company, in view of the extremely high water and flooding of low wharves, will guarantee safe landing only at Kingston, Picton, Deseronto and Belleville. The company will not be liable for any damage sustained by landing passengers, freight and cattle at other places along the Bay of Quinte.

High Water at Port Dalhousie. PORT DALHOUSIE, May 7.—An easterly gale has been blowing here all day with rain. The lake is running high and has caused much damage. The electric elevator out of business. The water is so high as to go into the bins in which the grain is kept. The steamers Rosemont, in view of the high water, will not be allowed to get loaded on account of the high water. The electric lights in the village were also put out of business last night on the same account.

The Storm at Chicago. CHICAGO, Ill., May 7.—One man was killed and many pedestrians were put in peril by falling live wires, and during a terrific wind and rain storm.

We're always pleased to have our customers consult us on questions relating to plumbing and heating. A knowledge gained by long experience and an aptness to advise, and quotations we give are based on work which will surely please. The Fred Armstrong Co., Ltd.

SHE SAW TWO MEN. But That Was on the 16th—Another Identification.

ERINDALE, May 7.—(Special.)—Paul Morris, who came out to Erindale at the request of Detective Miller to-day, to view the remains of Alec Linette, which were exhumed, made the positive statement that the dead man had been killed by the high water in D. D. Davis' office, 141 West Front-street. Beyond this no new developments have cropped up in the Clarksons murder mystery, save that Mrs. George Manley, who lives on the Dundas-road, near the Faeken Farm, states that she saw two men answering the description already given, on April 16—the date upon which the tickets from Sunnyside were issued. Mrs. Manley remembers that they carried a large grip between them, and that the taller man wore a light overcoat and a black Christy hat.

Dr. Edward Fisher, who founded the Conservatory of Music 21 years ago, and who has performed eminent services in the cause of art in Canada, was banqueted at the Conservatory by the Toronto Cief Club in McCorkay's last night. Dr. Humphrey Auer, president, occupied the chair and addressed the members of the club, and Prof. Kilpatrick, Dr. Ham, Dr. Fisher, Mr. J. A. Macdonald, Mr. Edmund Haines, Mr. E. B.
