Lewis, Scott Road; I. M. Lewis, Salisbury; Lance Corporal Bentley Lewis, Berry's Mills; Bliss A. Lewis, Thomas W. Lewis, Steeves Mountain.

A PAEAN OF VICTORY

St. John, N.B., April 27, 1917. To the Editor of the Times: Sir—Kindly grant me a short space to extend congratulations to the citizens and council who boldly and fearlessly came forth and gave the daylight-saving scheme the black eye. Where is the mighty Goliath who strode forth last fall and declared that "the daylight-saving plan had been a great success" that it had made many friends and no enemies?

The enemies were just behind the parapet waiting for the spring advance and they have come forth in the hour of need and dealt coercion and aggression a fatal blow. We shall again live in peace as in days of yore. Sincerely yours, MATTHEW ALCORN.

RECTOR GOING WEST

(Chatham World) We are sorry to hear that the Rev. H. T. Montgomery, the rector of Derby and Blackville, feels it incumbent on him to take even a year's leave from the diocese at this time of crisis. The work in his mission was developing under his care and supervision, and there was promise of an early freedom from the board of missions. But we are confident that Mr. Montgomery has recognized a far greater claim from Calgary, and a claim which clearly calls him to go.

Oh! Men Come and See What Boots

3.99 will buy here now

Buying Shoes now is like getting insurance against a rainy day, for nobody knows how much higher footwear will go. Certainly, even if you buy several pairs, they will be worn out before prices go lower; for if the war should stop tomorrow, stocks would still have to be replaced and the nations reclothed.

These Boots, specially priced at $3.99, are remarkable—first of all for the high-grade leather that is in them; second for their plain, dignified style; third for their careful making, and then for the remarkable price.

Don't hesitate about buying more than one pair. Buy all you can. Next fall shoes will cost you three times these prices at present rate of advances.
