

DOCTORS OF THE PROVINCE MEET IN THE CAPITAL

Fredericton, N. B., July 20.—The N. B. Medical Society opened its 33rd annual convention here in the council chamber this morning with an attendance of about forty delegates. The proceedings opened with prayer by Rev. J. E. Wilson, Mayor Mitchell welcomed the delegates and extended to them the freedom of the city.

The president, Dr. G. C. VanWart, referred to advances made by medical science and to the important place it was filling in the war; also to the good work being done by New Brunswick practitioners at the front. He suggested that a by-law be amended so that the fee of the annual meeting could be fixed by officers of the society. He also advocated an increased fee for medical men conducting post-mortems and attending inquests. Other suggestions had to do with education and treatment of suspected cases of tuberculosis, care of advanced cases, the cancer problem, the public health act and vital statistics. He thought that the law requiring school children to be vaccinated should be rigidly enforced in country districts.

Appropriate reference was made to the death of Doctors Berryman, Johnston and McIntosh, of St. John. The secretary read a letter from Dr. G. G. Corbett, now at the front, stating that Doctor Duval of St. John had been wounded. The balance of the morning was taken up with reports of committees and in the afternoon the visitors will be dined at the Ravine Lodge by local physicians.

Coroner George A. Perley of Margerville was here today and conferred with Chief of Police McCollin in regard to the case of James Murray, whose body was found in the river at Margerville on Sunday. There were some marks on the body but Dr. Plummer thinks that death resulted from strangulation caused by a stone lodging in the windpipe. There is some evidence that Murray was interred in a row here on the night of July 17 and the coroner this afternoon interviewed men who were last seen in his company and subpoena them as witnesses at the inquest on Thursday.

A twenty gallon keg of whiskey and three barrels of bottled ale were seized at the C. P. R. station last week. Not having been claimed they were ordered destroyed by the police magistrate this morning. The liquor was shipped here from St. John.

"Well, mum," replied the verger, "that's the vicar, them's the curates, and I'm the verger, but as you are here as long as they behave themselves decent we don't enquire into their antecedents."

THE WARREN OF VIRGINIA, THE LASKY-BELASCO PHOTOGRAPHIC VERSION OF WM. C. DEMILLE'S PLAY OF THE SAME NAME AT THE IMPERIAL TOMORROW

"The Warrens of Virginia," the Lasky-Belasco photographic version of Wm. C. Demille's play of the same name at the Imperial tomorrow, shows a phase of Civil war life which has little emphasis. This is the home life of the Southern families, rich a few months before, now patiently and courageously enduring poverty and defeat. The drama does not seek to justify the politics of either cause, but it must bring closer to all the world the sufferings of the Confederacy and the nobility of the "boys in grey." Blanche Sweet, who makes her Lasky debut in this production, plays the role of a Southern girl who is captured by her own lover, a Northern lieutenant. The cast is as follows:

APPOINTMENTS ON WEDNESDAY

Mayor Frink—"If we leave it over a week we just have one day to make the appointment and if there is not a quorum the appointments will go to the government by default. I will be here tomorrow."
Com. Wigmore—"I can assure you I had no such intention. I am willing to change the date to any other time that is convenient to the majority."
On reconsideration the appointments were laid over until Wednesday morning at eleven o'clock, this proving acceptable to the entire council.
Com. Potts said that he wished to show that he had no hand in allowing the appointment to drift into the hands of the government and he would move that, if the council had not appointed commissioners who will act, by eleven o'clock p. m. on July 28, that the mayor and commissioners will then be considered appointed as the assessment commission.
The mayor objected that this was not necessary and there was no second.
Retaining Walls.
Com. Potts submitted estimates secured by Com. Agar in 1914 for retaining walls as follows:—Rockland Road, 27 feet, $480; Monck street, 16 feet, $1,184; Main street, $1,890 or $7,890, according to the length. He would offer $1,000 for the Rockland Road wall, and $1,000 for the Main street wall, and $1,000 for the Monck street wall. He would refer to Com. Potts, the mayor said that they all knew the pressure of public opinion against the retaining walls, and if it is necessary to avoid actions for damages, it would be better to have an economical issue of the bonds and have the work done.
On motion of Com. Russell the matter was referred to J. mayor and commissioner of public works to report.
The 71st annual session of the National Division of the Sons of Temperance of North America will be held in Zions Church, Charlotte, tomorrow evening, opening at ten o'clock a. m.
