RE AMATEUR RE-ORGANIZATION IN N. B. OUT

REINSTATEMENT Stribling Rules Slight Favorite Over Berlenbach In Coming Bout

PROBABLY WILL

Gathering Here to be Held in Board of Trade Rooms

NOTICES to the various amateur clubs in New Brunswick affiliated with the M. P. B. to send delegates to a meeting to be held here on Monday. June 21, in the Board of Trade rooms for the purpose of getting a definite expression of opinion on the question of the formation of a New Brunswick Amateur Athletic Association will be mailed out either tonight or tomorrow mailed out either tonight or tomorrow by W. E. Stirling, present amateur chief in New Brunswick, according to chief in New Brunswick, according to word today.

In view of the apparent widespread interest in this movement, Mr. Stirling has deemed it advisable to get a concrete statement of feeling on this matter in the best interests of the sport and for this purpose is calling the meeting here. There is every likelihood that at this meeting, a formal resolution setting out the desire of the provincial clubs to operate their own district will be adopted. It is understood a similar plan will be followed in Nova Scotia, where such a movement has strong support. ment has strong support.

MANY TO ATTEND Clubs will be allowed as many delegates as they are now authorized to send under the M. P. B. constitution and a free and frank discussion of affairs will take place. Sussex, Moneton, Chatham, Newcastle, Bathurst, Campbellton, Sackville, Fredericton and St. Stephen will likely send delegates or else will notify authorities here of their attitude in the matter.

RE-INSTATEMENT One of the matters which is likely to be brought up in informal discussion be brought up in informal discussion at the meeting is the question of reinstatement of several players now outside the amateur fold. In a section where the number of athletes is very small compared to the more populous sections of Canada, there is a feeling in some quarters that leniency should be shown the boys who transgressed and who are now ready to make and who are now ready to make

The life sentence passed on athletes who break the law is harsh and unjust and it is felt that as many of them have now learned their lesson, that the amateur circles would in no wise be harmed if the bars were let wise be harmed if the bars were let down and they were taken back. Tales of doings in this respect in Upper Canada have created a certain amount of unrest and there is a feeling here that while we have been observing the letter of the law, they have not been so strict elsewhere, particularly in the west, where they go so far at times to advocate mingling of pros and amateurs. Quite a batch of Maritime boys were re-instated at the last annual meeting of the C. A. A. U., but there are a few more and their cases are likely to come up at the June 21 meeting.

The losers got away to a big start through high scores by R. Black, Brentnall and Covey and had a lead of 78 pins at the end of the first string. The Pender boys had a hard uphill fight all the way but cut the score down by 50 pins in the second string, Givan's 129 helping greatly. In the final string they wiped out the lead and nosed the Knights out for the championship.

the first girls' track and field meet ever held under the auspices of the Women's Athletic Federation of Canada and that the net result will be the uncovering of some promising material for Canada's Olympic

THE suspension against players on the Sackville amateur hockey club placed there last winter for competing placed there last winter for competing against a pro has been lifted, according to W. E. Stirling, N. B. vice-president of the M. P. B., this morning. The Savkville Amateur Athletic Club has re-organized to include the hockey team and on the understanding that this association would see that the rules were lived up to that the ban against the players was taken off.

Sackville had a cracking good hockey team last winter and prospects for this winter are just as bright. BOOST COLE

Not only in hockey but in speed-skating as well is Sackville to the fore these days. Chester Cole, boy's 14year old champion, and young Wheaton placed the town on the speedskating map by the great work last year and even better things are expected of them this year. Sackville enthusiasts plan to get behind these boys this winter and boost them to the

NEW WATERFORD, N. S., June 7
—Buddy Lewis, of New Waterford, tonight knocked out Porter McIntyre, of Saint John, in the fourth round of a scheduled 10-round bout here. Lewis had the edge throughout until the end came, knocking down McIntyre for two counts in the first and third.

A small crowd attended the fight. Tommy Casey, of Glace Bay, refereed.

The Tucsday and Thursday evening games have been transposed and the Trojans and Saint Johns will meet this evening on the East End grounds. Thursday evening the Water Department and Saint Johns will play. Earl Nelson, the colored star, will be Nelson's first attempt to pitch a full game this season and the fans will watch his performance with interest. The sympathy of all followers of baseball will go out to Corrigan in his bereavement. Johnny is a quiet, clean type of ball player, and deservedly popular with all who watch the games.

Dempsey Touts Georgian As Coming Titleholder

NEW YORK, June 8-When Young Stribling steps into the Yankce Stadium ring next Thursday evening to do battle with Paul Berlenbach for the light heavyweight championship of the world, the public will witness the rare spectacle of a challenger being , the favorite over the champion in the betting.

There is a chance, of course, that Berlenbach's stock may shoot skyward between now and the night of the bout, but it doesn't seem probable. On the contrary, the Stribling complex among the fans seems to be growing stronger each day, and it has even besieged Tex Rickard, usually conservative in his judgment of fighters. Only yesterday

"I think Young Stribling is a com-ing heavyweight champion of the There appears to be two popular reasons for making Stribling the favor-ite. One is based on the widespread impression that Berlenbach has gone back a great deal during the last year, and this is the honest opinion of many Astoria Assassin in some of his recent contests.

The other reason is Berlenbach's disappointing showing against Johnny Riske, of Cleveland, at Madison Square Garden. Stribling had no great difficulty to outpoint the Westerner and in doing so he put up one of the most masterful performances of his career. The Georgian didn't damage the Ohio rubber man" to any great extent, but he made him look exceedingly dumb
