LOCAL NEWS

BATTLE LINE
S. S. "Tanagra," Captain Dalton, bound from Ypsala for Cardiff, passed Copenhagen today.

SIXTEEN CONFIRMED
The Bishop of Fredericton visited Grand Falls last week and administered the rite of confirmation to sixteen candidates in All Saints Church.

THE TUNISIAN
Allan Iles S. S. "Tunisian," was reported 390 miles west of Main Head at noon on Monday and is due at Liverpool on Wednesday morning.

WOMAN PRISONER
A woman who was arrested on Marsh Bridge last evening, was remanded in the police court today on charge of drunkenness.

CASE DISMISSED
The first thing the police magistrate did on taking his seat this morning was to announce that the case against C. B. Lockhart for faking in the harbor without a license had been dismissed. The complaint against Mr. Lockhart which was brought by J. F. Belyea, was given several hearings about three weeks ago, and has since been under consideration by the magistrate.

SOLOMON CUP MATCH
Regarding the cash prizes reported in this match awarded to the 2nd Battery, attention is called to the fact that the individual cash prizes were supplied by the commander of No. 2 Battery for the competition of its members only, and were not connected in any way with regimental or rifle association funds. In the original report this was made quite clear and was merely to advise the winners, but in the course of reaching the press the wording was materially changed by mistake and a wrong impression conveyed.

C. MILES MOORE DEAD IN WOODSTOCK, HOME
ONLY FEW DAYS AGO

Had Made a Name For Himself
In the Lumbering Business

(Special To Times)
Woodstock, N. B., Aug. 26.—C. Miles Moore, aged forty-eight, died this morning at his mother's home, following a short illness from cancer. He went to Vancouver a few months ago and died only on Wednesday last. He called rapidly until the end. He leaves, besides his wife, three daughters, one son, one brother and two sisters.
Mr. Moore was a member of a well-known lumbering concern, Fred Moore & Sons, who, at one time, had lumber interests spread over various parts of New Brunswick and Maine. His business career started in Meductic, where he became the junior member of the concern, and his ability gained promotion for him and he was recognized as a number man of exceptional capabilities. The funeral arrangements have not yet been completed.

DO NOT AGREE AS TO SEARS BUILDING

D. R. Jack and Fire Chief Differ
From Mr. Sears in Contention
as to Age of Structure

A case in which Postmaster Sears is charged with violating the city building by-law was given a brief hearing this morning. It has been Mr. Sears' contention that since his building in King street was built prior to the passing of the city by-law in 1877, it is exempt from the restrictions imposed by the law, and that if he cared to make improvements he might do so without consulting the building inspector.
D. Russell Jack and Fire Chief Blake both gave evidence. Mr. Jack appeared for the fire insurance people and from his personal remembrance said that Mr. Sears' building had not been standing at the time of the great fire, just after which the by-law had been passed. Chief Blake gave like testimony, saying that he had worked in the district in question at the great fire and did not remember that Mr. Sears' house was standing. There was then a general discussion by C. F. Incheb, who appeared for Mr. Sears, J. B. M. Baxter and Commissioner McLellan for the city. The magistrate suggested that Mr. Sears cover the house with a concrete preparation and put on a gravel roof and it was understood that if he complied the matter would be dropped. The case was adjourned this morning in order that those interested might inspect the building.

Sawmill for Gagetown
(Fredericton Gleaner)

Gagetown is likely to have a new industry next season. Luther B. Smith, having decided to erect a big lumber saw mill there.

Some time ago Mr. Smith's mill at Blissville, Sunbury County, was destroyed by fire and since then he has been looking about for the most suitable site for a new mill. He has lately about decided that Gagetown is the best site.
In the event of his deciding to go ahead with his project Mr. Smith will probably erect a large plant which will employ 100 or more men and will be one of the most up-to-date plants along the river. It will likely be fitted up as a band saw mill with rotary equipment as well and there will also be a shingle and planing department.
Mr. Smith has some timber limits on the Nepesis and believes that Gagetown will prove a convenient site for a mill because of there being good holding grounds in that vicinity and also because it can be easily reached from Grand Lake and other lumbering sections in the central part of the province.

SEVEN CRIMINAL CASES ON DOCKET

This Draws Comment From Judge
Jonah in County Court—Three
For Speedy Trials

The August term of the county court opened this morning with His Honor Judge Jonah presiding. J. A. Barry appeared in behalf of the attorney general. In addressing the grand jury His Honor commented upon the unusually large criminal docket, stating that he was unable to say whether it should be attributed to the growth and prosperity of the city or an outbreak of crime.
True bills were found in the cases of the King vs. Roy Thompson, the King vs. Robert Dickson, and the King vs. Frank Morrison and the King vs. John Travis. In the case of the King vs. Philip Home, the King vs. Alexander Differson, and the King vs. Charles Boylan, the defendants elected to be tried under the Speedy Trials Act. The docket was—

Criminal Docket
King vs. Thompson, indecent assault—A. A. Wilson, K. C.
King vs. Robert Dickson, attempt to murder—No counsel.
King vs. Morrison, theft—G. Earle Logan.
King vs. John Travis, breaking and entering and theft—D. Mullin, K. C.
King vs. Alex. Differson, doing actual bodily harm—Dr. W. B. Wallace, K. C.
King vs. Charles Boylan, assault—S. Ritchie.
King vs. Philip Home, non-support—No counsel.

Civil Docket—non-jury
1.—Shaw vs. Watson—Barnhill, Ewing & Sanford.
2.—Canadian Consolidated Rubber Company vs. Dams—Hannington & Hannington.
3.—McLeod vs. Green—Heber S. Keith.
4.—Belyea vs. Haley—George H. V. Belyea.
5.—Weatherhead vs. Daley—George H. V. Belyea.
6.—Bielenberg vs. Belyea—George H. V. Belyea.

7.—Currie vs. Geo.—Francis Kerr.
The grand jurors are Isaac Erb, P. A. Smith, John B. Hardisty, John W. Hornbrook, David Watson, Walter Bailey, Horace C. Brown, Chas. H. Kerr, Wm. G. Scovill (foreman); James W. Morrison, Robert S. Craig (absent), John S. Russell, Bert Evans, Thos. E. Dillon, Frederick Selby, Melvin T. Gibbons, George C. Kierstead, Wm. A. Steiper, Lewis Phillips (absent), Maurice D. Coll (excused), Beverley V. Millidge, Bayard Stillewell, Charles A. Conway.
The naturalization papers of John Sweeney, formerly of Paris, Tennessee, an engineer now of the Parish of Lancaster, were presented to the court by G. Earle Logan and the naturalization papers of Savus Kandaris, formerly of Athens, Greece, by MacIrae, Sinclair & MacIrae.
The court adjourned until 2.30 o'clock this afternoon.

W. J. McCAFFREY TAKES ANOTHER STEP AHEAD

(New York Journal of Commerce)
William J. McCaffrey, who has been general manager of the New Amsterdam Casualty Company for some years, has accepted an important position on the executive staff of the Globe Indemnity Company with the title of superintendent of the liability department. Mr. McCaffrey has resigned from the New Amsterdam Casualty to take effect as soon as agreeable to President Moore, and will, on or about September 1, assume his new duties with the Globe Indemnity.
In addition to supervising the liability department of the Globe Indemnity, Mr. McCaffrey will assist General Manager Reid in the general conduct of the business, and his appointment will thus enable General Superintendent F. H. Kingsbury to give more time to the executive and agency matters of the company.
Mr. McCaffrey commenced his insurance career with the Fidelity & Casualty Company, afterwards leaving to go with the United States Casualty Company, where he became one of the supervising underwriters of its liability department. In 1901 he resigned from that company to go with William F. Moore, who had then assumed the management of the New Amsterdam Casualty. He has remained with that company since then, being promoted to the position of general manager.
Mr. McCaffrey's many years' experience in liability underwriting, his recognized ability and popularity among brokers and agents throughout the field make his appointment an important addition to the staff of the Globe Indemnity, and General Manager Reid will undoubtedly be congratulated on having made such a valuable acquisition to the Globe Indemnity's executive and underwriting force.

In St. John, Mr. McCaffrey's native city, many friends will be pleased to hear of his continued success. He was very popular here when clerk in the Hotel Dufferin.

ENGAGEMENT IS DENIED
Gleaner: Miss Alice M. Parker, whose engagement to a St. John man was recently announced in the Gleaner, asked today to have announcement made that she was not engaged and that she had not been. The original announcement came to the Gleaner by mail in a communication purporting to be signed by Miss Parker's mother, who denies having signed or sent the notice.

INQUEST NEXT TUESDAY
The likelihood is that an inquest will be held into the death of Harry Coyte, Cornner Berryman said this morning that he expected to hold one next Tuesday evening, but as yet had made no definite arrangements.
