The Evening Chit-Chat By RUTH CAMERON

"MY son, if you would be wise, open first your eyes, next your ears, and last of all your mouth, that your words may be words of wisdom and give no advantage to your adversary."

La MARQUISE de FONTENOY Disraeli Was Very Anxious to Be Made Knight of Garter as Commoner — The New Lord Chamberlain

King George's action in bestowing the Order of the Garter upon Sir Edward Grey, serves to recall the now almost forgotten fact that Benjamin Disraeli aspired to similar distinction, long before he was raised to the peerage as Earl of Beaconsfield.

It is not quite correct to assert that Lord Edward is the only commoner since the days of Sir Robert Walpole, (the celebrated premier of George I. and George II.) to receive the Order of the Garter. The latter has been worn in at least two other instances that I can remember.
