"Oh, Billy and I didn't decide till an hour ago," she said. We've been engaged for a year, you know, and we've been waiting for Billy to strike it rich, but he doesn't do it, so we made up our minds we wouldn't wait another minute. We knew this was a rectory, and we've got our license, and there isn't a soul in the world cares whether we are married or not, so we ran in here; and now you can say the words over us.

The girl was determined. In vain did the minister suggest that she wait till the following day. The young man came round from behind the girl and said he could not wait, and that's all there was to it, and if this minister would not marry them they would chase over the city until one was found who would. So there was nothing for the minister to do but make them man and wife. After the ceremony the groom pushed his wife up to the minister, and the young woman hung her head and the poung woman head her head and the poung woman her head and the poung woman her would chase would have a would chase the would have a w
