LOCAL NEWS.

Mrs. Hughes and family wish to thank all those friends who were so kind in their recent sad bereavement.

Members of No. 8 Bearer Co. are requested to remember that uniforms will be issued at the armory on Wednesday evening at eight o'clock.

Sugar has fallen off ten cents during the past few days. The first intimation of a drop came from the New York market.

The parlor concert which was to be held at the home of Mr. Whelpley, Adelaide street, this evening, under the auspices of the North End branch of the W. C. T. U., has been postponed until further notice.

The death occurred Sunday of the 14 months old daughter of William E. Holston St. Marys. Death is said to have been due to poisoning resulting from the child having eaten some pills containing poison which were about the house.

The new ferry steamer Ludlow will be on the route again this afternoon. There are only a few more alterations to be made when the boat will be complete.

In the case of Poullet vs. the steamer Lady Ellen, the conclusion of argument as to security of costs was heard yesterday. Judgment will be given to the plaintiff, L. A. Curry representing W. A. Mott, of Campbellton, for the defendant.

The ladies auxiliary of the F. M. C. A. wish to thank all those who have contributed refreshments so generously to the high tea during the Fair of Nations, and A. O. Skinner for his valuable assistance in decorating the tea room.

LeBaron Thompson, of the Eastern Steamship Line is entertaining a party of Americans at McCormick Lake and at daylight this morning after calling for moose for some time the party were delighted to see a large moose appear on top of the hill and arrange the call. There was some hustling into the camp for rifles but before the hunters could get within range the moose crashed away through the woods.

Some comment has been made as to the fact that on the new ferry Ludlow, the pipes for the steam heating lie along the wall underneath the seats. On the old boats they are so arranged that on cold days passengers could warm their benumbed fingers on them.

Carleton people now having a picnic of themselves on a cold morning on the Ludlow, crouching on the floor and reaching their aching hands under the seats, to warm them.

FREDERICK N. CHALMERS DEAD

After a long illness the death took place this morning of Frederick N. Chalmers, accountant with R. C. Elkin and one of the best informed men in the shipping business in St. John.

Mr. Chalmers had been ill during the summer with typhoid fever, but was recovering a few days ago he contracted pneumonia and went down hill rapidly. He was married a little over three years to Miss Minnie Elkin, daughter of R. C. Elkin, of this city. He was the only son of the late Dr. Chalmers of this city and had leaves, besides his widow, a mother and one sister to mourn their loss.

Mr. Chalmers was a young man of large promise and was popular with all who knew him. His untimely death brings sorrow to a large circle.

WEDDING ANNIVERSARY.

A merry company assembled at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. J. Oliver Craft, Water street, West End, on Oct. 19th, to being their fortieth wedding anniversary. A number of friends of the well known couple were present.

Mrs. Mary Fairweather, a sister of Mrs. Craft, who is in her 82nd year, favored those present with several vocal selections which were heartily enjoyed by all. Rev. W. H. Sampson in a few well chosen words, on behalf of the company presented the host and hostess with a beautiful dinner set.

Mr. Craft in a neat and appropriate speech thanked the donors for their handsome gift. The gathering broke up at a quarter of eight, after a very pleasant evening.

IRISH GUARDS BAND.

The Irish Guards Band arrived this morning at 6.20 a. m. The band is accompanied by Lord de Veal, Dr. Orr, Mr. Treland and Percy W. Rogers and Donald McGregor.

The Queen's rink is all in readiness for this afternoon and evening and the citizens of St. John should not lose the last opportunity to hear this famous band. There are a few good seats left at 50c, 75c, and $1.00.

The Carleton Cornet Band will recit at the station to the rink at 7.15 o'clock this evening.

A LONG DRIVE.

Walter Roberts, formerly of North End, has sold his blacksmithing and carriage building business at Hammond River to Worden Brothers of that place, who are successfully conducting the same. Mr. Roberts, who is an enterprising young man, was forced to give up the work on account of ill health. He left yesterday for a trip to the upper parts of the St. John river, which will be taken in an open carriage. After a few days shooting he will return to the city by the old road. The trip will take several weeks, as Mr. Roberts does not intend rushing.

PROBATE COURT.

In the probate court yesterday administration in the estate of the late Frederick Buchanan was granted to his brother, Samuel Buchanan. The estate values at $15 real and $240 personal property. Dr. Silas Alward proctor. Petition was presented by John Mitchell and Charles H. Peters, executor of the estate of the late Mrs. Josephine Baird, asking to have their accounts to the amount of $12,000 passed. Citation was granted, returnable on Nov. 27. Barnhill, Ewing and Sanford proctors.

ARRANGEMENTS FOR PRINCE LOUIS' VISIT.

Prince Louis of Battenberg will come on Thursday morning at 8.30 o'clock. The warships are expected to arrive here earlier that morning.

During the afternoon the Lieutenant Governor Snowball and Mayor White will pay their respects to Prince Louis, and the visit will be returned by him at noon he will be entertained at luncheon in the Union Club by Mayor White, and in the afternoon it is expected he will be the guest of Governor Snowball at a drive about the city and suburbs.

In the evening will be the reception and ball in St. Andrew's rink, and the following morning the prince will leave for Fredericton at 11 o'clock by special train.

The warships will remain here till Monday morning, when they will leave for Halifax, and will probably be open to visitors during the afternoon. The committee have arranged for a covering of waxed linen to be placed on the floor. They have also arranged for dressing rooms.

The Artillery band will be stationed in the domestic science booth, and opposite them, over the Old Colonial Days booth, will be an illuminated sign of welcome.

POLICE COURT.

At the police court this morning George Flanagan pleaded guilty to being drunk on Water street. A badly bruised face was accounted for by him by a fall. He was fined four dollars.

Hedley Roberts was found falling about the I. C. R. train shed yesterday by policeman Collins. He was very drunk and in court this morning explained that he had arrived in the city with a horse from Montreal, which he delivered to J. B. Hamm from Mr. Pearson the Montreal horse dealer. He took some whiskey and beer and as a result lost his ticket for Montreal and only had eleven cents in his pocket. He asked to be given a chance and if he can get transportation to Montreal he will probably be allowed to depart this evening.

Thos. Dean was selling meat without a license paid $20 and is given until November 4th to take out a license.

COLLISION ON MAIN STREET.

Quite a serious accident took place on Main street this morning, about ten o'clock, when there was a collision between an electric car and a wood cart belonging to and driven by Joseph Naves, of Moore street.

Mr. Naves was driving down Main street to Sayer's mill where he gets loads of wood for distribution, and he was on the track when he was struck by an electric car coming up the street. The cart was considerably damaged, while the fender was broken on the car.

Thos. Dean was thrown from the top of the cart and fell on his face. His injuries were not severe and when taken into McMillin's drug store he soon was as well as ever, except for a very bad cut on his mouth.
