The remark naturally was ill received by the majority of the members.

A despatch to the Times from Vienno says that the report is published as coming from military sources that 220
Young Turkish officers, including all the officers of the cavalry regiment, were murdered last week. If that is true all the alleged demands of the committee for the punishment of the authors of the mutiny may acquire a grim significance.

The remark naturally was ill received by the past season, and wonderful cleverness was displayed by his pupils who, by the way, captured all the contests.
