POETRY.

THE PLOUGH BOY.

The sun is set,
Day lingers yet,
And homewards I am creeping;
The evening guide,
On the other side,
Just through the wood is peeping.

I'll leave my plow,
And labor now,
Till morning dawn is breaking,
And then with seed,
Away I'll speed,
Before my friends are waking.

I love the lawn,
At early dawn,
That leads me to my labour,
Where fresh winds blow,
And flowers grow,
Sweet nature is my neighbour.

I'll plough and sow,
And reap and mow,
And fill my barns to overflowing:
The country's health—
The country's wealth,
Is in earth bosom growing.

Then let me raise,
My heart in praise,
To God the gracious giver;
Of mercies all,
Both great and small,
O let me praise forever.

And then to Christ,
My great high Priest,
I'll pray, who lives in heaven;
For he hath died—
Was crucified,
That I might be forgiven.

TRUTH.

The following beautiful illustration of the simplicity and grandeur of truth, is from the pen of S. H. Hammond, formerly editor of the Albany State Register. He was an eye-witness of the scene in one of the higher courts:

A little girl nine years of age was offered as a witness against a prisoner who was on trial for a felony committed in her father's house.

"Now Emily," said the counsel for the prisoner, on her being offered as a witness "I desire to know if you understand the nature of an oath?"

"I don't know what you mean," was the simple answer.

"There, your Honor," said the Counsel, addressing the Court, "is anything further necessary to demonstrate the validity of my objection? This witness should be rejected. She does not understand the nature of an oath.

"Let us see," said the Judge. "Come here" my daughter.

Assured by the kind tone and manner of the judge, the child stepped toward him, and looked confidingly up in his face, with a calm, clear eye, and in a manner so artless and frank, that went straight to the heart.

"Did you ever take an oath?" inquired the Judge. The little girl stepped back with a look of horror, and the red blood mantled in a blush all over her face and neck, as she answered:

"No, sir."

She thought he intended to inquire if she had ever blasphemed.

"I do not mean that," said the Judge, who saw her mistake, "I mean were you ever a witness before?"

"No sir, I never was in court before," was the answer.

He handed her the Bible open.

"Do you know that book, my daughter?" She looked at it, and answered, "Yes, sir, it is the Bible."

"Do you ever read it?" he asked.

"Yes, sir, every evening."

"Can you tell me what the Bible is?" asked the Judge.

"It is the word of the great God," she answered.

"Well, place your hand upon this Bible, and listen to what I say;" and he repeated slowly and solemly the oath which is usually administered to witnesses.

"Now, said the Judge, "you have sworn as a witness, will you tell me what will befall you if you do not tell the truth?"

"I shall be shut up in the State prison," answered the child.

"Anything else?

"I shall never go to Heaven," she replied.

"How do you know all this?" asked the Judge.

The child took the Bible, and turning to the chapter containing the commandments, pointed to the injunction: "Thou shalt not bear false witness against thy neighbour."

"I learnt that before I could read."

Has any one talked with you about your being a witness here against the prisoner at the bar," again inquired the Judge.

"Yes sir," she replied. "My mother heard they wanted me to be a witness, and last night she called me to her room, and asked me to repeat the ten commandments, and then we knelt down together, and she prayed that I might understand how wicked it was to bear false witness against my neighbor, and that God would help me, a little child, to tell the truth as it was before him. And when I came up here with mother she kissed me, and told me to remember the ninth commandment, and that God would hear every word that I said."

"Do you believe this?" asked the Judge while a tear glistened in his eye, and his lip quivering with emotion.

"Yes, sir," said the child, with a voice and manner which showed that her conviction of its truth was perfect.

"God bless you, my child," said the Judge, "you have a good mother. This witness is competent, he continued. Were I on trial for my life, and innocent of the charge against me, I would pray God for such a witness as this. Let her be examined."

She told her story with the simplicity of a child as she was, but there was a directness about it which carried conviction of its truth to every heart. She was rigidly cross-examined. The counsel plied her with infinite and ingenious questioning, but she varied from her first statement in nothing. The truth as spoken by that little child was sublime. Falsehood and perjury had preceded her testimony. The prisoner had entrenched himself in lies till he had deemed himself impregnable. Witnesses had falsified facts in his favour, and villany had manufactured for him a sham defence. But before her testimony, falsehood fled like chaff. The little child for whom a mother had prayed for strength to be given to speak the truth before God, broke the cunning devices of matured villany to pieces like a potters vessel. The strength that her mother prayed for was given her, and the sublime and terrible simplicity—terrible I mean to the prisoner and his associates—with which she spoke was like a revelation from God himself.

A MEDICAL REVOLUTION

THE WORLD ENAMOURED.

HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT.

THE GREAT COUNTER IRRITANT!

The virus of disease often makes its way to the internal organs through the pores of the skin. This penetrating Ointment, melting under the hand as it is rubbed in, is absorbed through the same channels, and, reaching the seat of inflammation, promptly and invariably subdues it, whether located in the kidneys, the liver, the lungs, or any other important organ. It penetrates the surface to the interior, through the countless tubes that communicate with the skin as summer rain passes into the fevered earth diffusing its cool and regenerating influence.

SKIN DISEASES & GLANDULAR SWELLINGS.

Every species of exterior irritation is quickly reduced by the anti-inflamatory action of this Ointment. Angry Eruptions, such as SALT RHEUM, ERYSIPELAS, TETTER, RINGWORM, SCALD HEAD, NETTLE RASH, SCABIES (or ITCH) &c., die out, to return no more under its application. Hospital experience in all parts of the world proves its infallibility in diseases of the skin, the muscles, the joints and the glands.

ULCERS, SORES, AND TUMORS.

The effect of this unrivaled external remedy upon Scrofula, and other virulent ulcers and sores, is almost miraculous. It first discharges the poison which produces suppuration and proud flesh, and thus the cures which its healing properties afterward complete are safe as well as permanent.

WOUNDS, BRUISES, BURNS, AND SCALDS.

In cases of the fracture of the bones, injuries caused by steam explosions, BRUISES, BURNS, SCALDS, RHEUMATISM, STIFFNESS OF THE JOINTS, and contraction of the sinews, it is employed and warmly recommended by the faculty. This marvellous remedy has been introduced by its inventor in person into all the leading Hospitals of Europe, and no private household should be without it.

UNDENIABLE TESTIMONY.

The Medical Staff of the French and English Armies in the Crimea have officially signed their approval of Holloway's Ointment, as the most reliable dressing for sabre cuts, stabs, and gun-shot wounds. It is also used by the surgeons of the Allied Navies.

Both the Ointment and Pills should be used in the following cases:

Bunions,	Rheumatism,	Sore Throats,
Burns,	Ringworm,	Sores of all kinds
Capped hands,	Salt Rheum,	Sprains,
Chilblains,	Scalds,	Stiff Joints
Fistula,	Skin Diseases	Tetter,
Gout,	Swelled	Ulcers,
Lumbago,	Glands,	Venereal Sores,
Mercurial	Sore Legs,	Wounds of all
Eruptions,	Sore Breasts,	kinds.
Piles,	Sore Heads,
