Cubs Snatched Only Victory of Series by Batting Rally in Extra Inning.

Finished Saturday Game With 4-3 Score--Sheckard and Schulte Heavy Batters.

Chicago, Oct. 22.—Nineteen thousand delirious enthusiasts saw the Chicago Nationals "come back" today and take the fourth game of the world's series from the Philadelphia Athletics 4 to 3, after a ninth inning tie and a tenth inning victory. The combat was one to live in history. It was anybody's game until the finish, when a double, an out and a single, put the winning run across the plate.

Up to Chicago's half of the ninth the score stood 3 to 2 in favor of the visitors. It looked as if the latter would perform the record-breaking feat of capturing four straight games in a world's series and take the pennant home with them. A number of Philadelphia visitors went so far as to make sleeping car reservations for tonight from a special agent on the grounds. As events turned out certain reservations from Chicago to Philadelphia were not occupied when the train pulled out.

Frank Schulte stepped to the plate in the last of the ninth. On his eye and arm, largely depended the issue whether the Americans would be the world's champions tonight or whether the Nationals might still hope to repeat Boston's performance of coming from behind and winning four straight after three defeats. There was a prayerful silence—then something happened. The right fielder firmly smote the sphere and it did not stop rolling till it bumped against the right field fence and the batsman had become a potential base runner on the second sack. Chief Bender merely smiled and the smile broadened to a grin when Hoffman sacrificed the runner to third.

But the crowd was fairly crazy with excitement. The roar of cheers was ear-splitting when Captain Chase came to the bat. The first ball pitched nipped him on the finger, but the umpire said he had walked into it and it served him right, or words to that effect. Chance hoped about, snapping the injured member for a moment, and then resumed his position, glaring in the direction of the still grinning Bender. He stepped into another one, but the result was different. With every muscle in his angry system tense, he caught the ball on the seam and slammed it to the farthest corner of the lot for a triple.

The gloom which had hung like a pall since Monday, first day away and in the sky of the fanatics appeared rainbows of hope and promise unbounded. The devoted band of Philadelphia rooters remained passive and confident. The habit of being on the winning side had not deserted them. They acclaimed the Indian hurler when Zimmerman and Steinfield went out relieving Chance with what would have been the winning run, stranded on third. The game just possibly might have ended at this stage but for a sensational catch by Baker. Steinfield poked a foul into a left field box and although the occupants thereof were far from helpful the fast third baseman of the Philadelphia team leaned over and snatched the ball. But that is only one of the many in which the game abounded.

In The Tenth.

The Philadelphia came to bat in their half of the tenth with the confidence. Archer smote a foul, however and Baker, the first man up, was disposed of. Captain Davis rose to the occasion with a clean double right and the local crowd felt something in its throat. "Home run" Murphy was up, but his best was a sharp grounder which Tinker fumbled for one breathless moment and then threw Davis out at third. Barry ended the rally by striking out.

There were two-out when the winning run came in. Tinker popped out but Archer interpolated a double which was followed by Brown's out at first. Every local hope hung on Sheckard. The Chicago left fielder hit into the first ball pitched for a single over second. Archer trotted across the plate and the agony was over.

At precisely this moment the heralded bewilderment and obfuscation of Connie Mack, if his men did not capture the game, occurred. Mr. Mack was plainly surprised, but he soon recovered and smiled with the thought of the margin of two victories remaining to his team.

"Tomorrow," he observed, "will be another day."

Kling Replied.

Chance answered the call of the west side constituency by sending "Kling" Cole into the box. Then came a surprise when Archer donned the catcher's glove and squatted behind home base. The new catcher personally conducted the winning run across the plate. Kling was displaced because his batting average of .387 for the series, it was thought, could not be lowered by Archer or anybody else. Archer's double was nothing if not timely, for previously he had accomplished nothing with the stick. "Nasty Kling" however, was not left out of the game entirely.

With the score 3 to 2 against him, Chance in the eighth inning removed Cole despite the successful pitching of the Mickligander for the sole purpose of allowing Kling to bat for him.

Kling sent an easy grounder to Baker, but the latter's poor throw allowed the runner to reach second. Then he vanished again, for Kane was sent in to run for him.

The box score was:—

Coombs Pitched Fifth and Deciding Game of Series With Cubs Yesterday--Won by Philadelphia 7-2--Bunching Hits and Three Errors Responsible for Five Runs in Eighth.

Chicago, Oct. 23.—The baseball championship of the world belongs to the Philadelphia club of the American league. They clinched the big pennant today, seven runs to two, from the Chicago Nationals and there was one in the big overfull crowd to say that they had not won it fairly and squarely. Five games were played and the eastern youngsters took four of them by outbating, outfielding and outstriking the veteran Chicago Cubs. They "got the jump" at the start, and although Chicago halted their progress with a defeat yesterday, really did not change the situation a bit.

The Philadelphia players were due. They won the American league banner in 1902, but there was a clean sweep that year. Five years ago the New York Nationals were too strong for them. So in this year of grace it was not in the cards that they should be denied. While the series was not the most profitable ever played, the players' share of the money amounts to $79,071. Of this amount sixty per cent, or $47,442, goes to the winners and $31,629 to the losers. As there are 23 players on each team eligible to participate, each of the Philadelphia players is entitled to round numbers to $2,062 and each Chicagoan to $1,375.

The players shared in today's receipts by courtesy of the management of the two clubs, who conceded that if today's receipts should be larger than those of any previous day, the smallest receipts should be considered as according to the game. Sunday's receipts should be accredited to the fourth contest, the last in which the players had a financial share.

The total receipts for the series were $173,980. The two clubs receiving $38,755 each, while $17,398 goes to the National commission. The total paid attendance was 129,219.

In Front Rank.

According to the general verdict the newly won prestige of the Philadelphia players and their wealth, entitles them to top places in athletic history. The Philadelphia players, with others added, it is said that while Connie Mack is a good work-a-day appellation, and it fits nicely in the headlines, as manager of the greatest ball team on earth, he should be addressed as Mr. Cornelius McGillicuddy, with never a syllable slur.

When this was put to Mr. McGillicuddy, he blushed and said it didn't matter what the manager of a team like his was called. "They're a grand bunch of boys," he said, beaming on his men. "I'm proud of them."

They never quit. In the first four games we used only 10 men, which speaks well for the way the boys work together and not until today did I use more than 11.

The performance of Coombs in pitching and winning three games in a five game series, is probably unique. He has pitched today to beat between the second and third games, but three days intervened between the third contest and today's exhibition. He had better control today than in the previous two games, and felled the opposing batters when his meant runs. Brown for Chicago, pitched excellent ball, except in the locally popular eighth inning, in which that inning was by no means entirely his fault.

The day was bright and the weather was of the Indian summer variety. Ground rules were necessary. Philadelphia took the lead in the first inning when Hartzel went to left field while Lord singled. The Philadelphia players present cheered, for that was exactly the reason that "Topsy" played instead of Strunk. He stole second and was immediately preceded by a throw in from touch. Whether it was in making a tackle or in getting kicked that he suffered his injury nobody seems to know. He was not known to be injured until he failed to get up with the other players after the scrimmage.

When the game was stopped Bender, who got his collar bone broken is probably out of the game for the season. He got hurt following a scrimmage which was immediately preceded by a throw in from touch.

Chicago's failure in the series can be laid to one cause—the weakness of the pitchers. The club has maintained its place in the National league race by getting an off run or two in small score games. In the words of Joe Tinker, "when they hit our pitchers we're not winners."

Not one of the pitchers was able to keep the hits down—Overall, Brown, Pfeister, Reulbach, McIntire—all fared alike with the Philadelphia hitters.

First Inning.

Philadelphia—Steinfeldt played for a punt on Hartzel but the latter singled between short and second. Lord made two strikes in attempting to punt and then struck out. Hartzel stole second standing up, as neither Tinker or Zimmerman covered the bag. Hartzel scored from second when Collins hit a grounder between second and short. Baker was the second out on a perpendicular foul to Archer. Collins stole second. Archer's throw being low, Brown settled down and struck out Davis. One run.

Chicago—Davis caught Sheckard's grounder and threw him out at first. Coombs covering the bag. Schulte's weak effort retired him. Collins to Baker. Hoffman went out same way. No runs.

Second Inning.

Philadelphia—Steinfeldt made a neat stop of Murphy's hot grounder and threw him out at first. Barry sent a high fly to Tinker. Lapp, who went in place of Thomas to catch for the purpose of strengthening the batting, struck out. No runs.

Chicago—Chance hit for two bases into the left field overdrive. Zimmerman was out on a neat sacrifice bunt. Coombs to Collins. Chase taking third. Steinfieldt hit too hot for Baker and Chance scored. Tinker fouled out to Davis. Lord took Archer's fly. One run.

Third Inning.

Philadelphia—Coombs struck out. Zimmerman captured Hartzel's grounder near first and the runner was out to Chance. Brown jumped into the air and made a one handed stop of Lord's grounder, throwing him out at first. No runs.

Chicago—Brown was out, his bunt going straight to Coombs who tossed it to Davis. Sheckard was an easy out, Collins to Davis. Schulte sent a hard drive right through Coombs' leg and was safe at first. He was out stealing. Lapp throwing perfectly to Collins. No runs.

Fourth Inning.

Philadelphia—Chance needed no assistance in disposing of Collins' grounder. Baker struck out. Davis grounded out, Zimmerman to Chance. No runs.

Chicago—The first base on balls was prevented to Hoffman. Chance attempted a sacrifice bunt, but Coombs threw Hoffman out at second. The Cub leader being safe at first. Barry scored second for the play of Hoffman. Chance took second when Zimmerman singled to left. Baker stopped Steinfieldt's hot grounder but it was as a hit filling the bases. Tinker struck out and Archer fanned. Coombs thus saving the situation for the visitors. No runs.

Fifth Inning.

Philadelphia—Murphy was safe on Steinfieldt's error. In the latter turning his grounder, Barry was out to Chance, sacrificing Murphy to second. Murphy scored when Lapp singled to left center. Coombs was out. Brown to Chance. Brown settled down and struck out Hartzel. One run.

Chicago—Collins made a pretty running stop of Brown's grounder and threw the runner out at first. Sheckard singled to center. Sheckard was forced out at second. Barry to Collins; Schulte was safe at first. Schulte out second, Lapp to Collins. No runs.

Sixth Inning.

Philadelphia—Lord fouled out to Archer; Scheckard was all but camped under Collins' fly. Zimmerman made a lightning play and threw out Baker at first. No runs.

Chicago—Barry ade a speedy throw and Hoffman was out at first. Lord popped under Chance's fly. Zimmerman made his second hit, a clean single to right. Zimmerman stole second. Lapp's throw being short. Steinfieldt flied out to deep center. No runs.

Seventh Inning.

Philadelphia—Brown checked Davis' hot grounder and Zimmerman threw the batter out at first. Murphy doubled to left. Barry hit to Hoffman and Murphy made third on the throw in. Lapp struck out. No runs.

Chicago—Hartzel captured Tinker's fly an inch inside the left field foul line. Archer went out on three pitched balls. Barry threw Brown out at first. No runs.

Eighth Inning.

Philadelphia—Coombs singled to right. Coombs was forced at second. Tinker to Zimmerman. Hartzel safe on a fielders choice. Hartzel stole second. Chance protested the decision, but was preemptorily ordered back to his position. Lord doubled to right, scoring Hartzel. Lord scored on a scratch double to right by Collins. Collins stole third. Collins was caught at the plate, Zimmerman to Archer. Baker was safe at first. Brown presented his first base on hit to Davis. Baker and Davis scored when Murphy hit through Zimmerman, the ball rolling to center. Hoffman threw wild to Archer, allowing the second of the run in and right, scoring Scheckard. Hartzel ran back for Zimmerman's fly. One run.

Ninth Inning.

Philadelphia—Coombs did not attempt to run when he knocked a Steinfieldt fly. Tinker flied out. Archer made his first hit, but was forced at second for the last out of the series when Kling, who batted for Brown, sent an easy grounder to Barry.
