OBITUARY.

George H. Martin.

George H. Martin died Friday afternoon at his residence, Union street, after a lingering illness. The news of his death was heard with regret by many friends.

Mr. Martin was 62 years old. Born in Alma, Albert county, he came to St. John when a young man. He learned the watchmaking and jewelry business and was a practical watchmaker, having spent some time in the Waltham watch factory.

His last place of business was in store 97 King street, now occupied by F. A. Dykeman & Co.

Mr. Martin for a number of years sat at the council board for Prince ward. His debut at the council was made as councillor for Prince in succession to the late George Woods. Afterwards he succeeded John C. Ferguson as alderman for the ward, and was several times returned.

At the time of the fire of '77 he was chairman of the fire committee and his last place of business was in store 97 King street, now occupied by F. A. Dykeman & Co.

For a number of years he was one of the board of water commissioners which office he held until the board was abolished at the time of the union. In the volunteer fire department Mr. Martin was an active member of No. 3 Company.

In 1887 he was appointed superintendent of streets. To the council members he was known as a faithful, painstaking official, while to the men under him "Boss" Martin, as he was termed, was a friend as well as a master.

Of late years Mr. Martin took a lively interest in fancy poultry, of which he had a valuable collection. He was president of the New Brunswick Poultry, Kennel & Pet Stock Association.

In Masonic circles he was a member of the Union Lodge of Portland (having joined that body on May 26, 1870), and the New Brunswick Royal Arch Chapter.

The illness which proved fatal to him more than two years ago and was contracted while on duty. After a particularly severe snowstorm in 1900, Mr. Martin was working early and late directing the operations of the street department, and his health suffered. "From that time until about three months before his death he was never the same," said one of his family last night. "Three months ago he suffered a paralytic stroke and was apparently on the road to convalescence when yesterday morning he was stricken again. Dr. H. G. Addy, who had attended him, was hastily summoned, but could do nothing and Mr. Martin died about 3 o'clock Friday afternoon."

He leaves a wife, three sons—George D., Andrew and Robert B. Martin—and four daughters—Mrs. H. A. Laughton, of Sydney, and George, of Boston, and Misses Lily, Susie and Mamie at home.

that he was feeling weak. He remained in the house for the rest of the afternoon, and after supper retired. He continued to grow weaker and Dr. Thomas Walker was called, but all that could be done was unavailing.

Mr. Robertson was 57 years of age, and a native of New Brunswick. He leaves a wife, one son and one daughter, James and Edna, each of whom reside in the city. His wife was a Miss Quinton, daughter of the late James Quinton, of Lancaster, and brother of W. A. Quinton, steward of the Provincial Lunatic Asylum. A brother was T. Nisbett Robertson, who died several years ago. Mr. Robertson had not been in the best of health of late years. He was suffering from a complication of complaints and was troubled with a weak heart. Practically all his life he had been connected with the I. C. R. When the service first began he entered the employ and was for years station master in this city. For the past year or so he had been acting as division freight agent.

Mr. Robertson was a member of the I. C. R. and was a very popular man. He was a very capable official, while to the men under him "Boss" Martin, as he was termed, was a friend as well as a master.
