CRAPES. FELT SKIRTS. DEPARTMENT! MOST FASHIONABLE SHADES LIKELY, CAMERON TAKEN IN THE BEST STYLE. ARRIVED.

The correspondent of the Associated Press left Port Klamath this forenoon at 10.30 o'clock, and by hard riding arrived here late this evening with the following report of the execution of Capt. Jack and us band. Boston Charley and Black Jim are led on the scaffold first and Schonchi, next. They trod on it with appar indifference, having evidently resolving the stairway, but looked wretched and miserable. The manacles had been struck off, but their arms were securely pinioned with cords. At precisely 9.45 o'clock the interpreters, Capt. A. C. Applegate and David Hill, explained to the prisoners the nature of the order to be read to them by the adjutant, and at 10 o'clock Adjutant Kingsbury read the orders, promulgating the sentence of the Commission, and the President's order therein, with the order of the Secretary of War, and the Department Commander in the premises. The two reprieved prisoners, Barncho and Sholuk, yet stood on the ground in front of the scaffold shackled and under guard during the reading. The pinioned victims were seated on the platform of the scaffold with their feet on the drop, listening anxiously, but of course understanding not a word of it. The reading occupied ten minutes.

Then the adjutant read the order and the commutation in the case of Parncho and Sloluks, and the poor fellows were 46 King Street, PORT OF SAINT JOHN. scaffold with their feet on the drop, listening anxiously, but of course understanding not a word of it. The reading occupied ten minutes.

Then the adjutant read the order and the commutation in the case of Parncho and Sloluks, and the pour fellows were taken back to the stockade evidently rejoiced at not accompanying the others to the happy hunting grounds. The chaplin then offered an earnest and fervid prayer for the souls of the culprits which was listened to attentively.

At 10.15 the fatal nooses were placed around their necks, under the direction of Capt. Hoge. It was necessary to cut off a little of Capt. Jack's long hair which was in the way of the rope. Capt. Hoge then bid farewell to the prisoners, and black caps were placed over the heads of all the culprits. At 10.20 they stood on the drop, and the rope was cut by the assistant at a signal made by Capt. Hoge's handkerchief. The bodies swung round and round, Jack and Jim apparently dying easily, but Boston and Sconchin suffering terrible convulsions. Boston and Sconchin repeatedly drew up their legs but the lwo others seemed to die almost instantly.

but the lwo others seemed to die almost instantly.

18:20. Their pulses were felt by Capt. Hoge, and as this is being written they are swinging lifeless in the air. As the drop fell with a terribly dead thud four poor wretched human beings fell into eternity, and a half smothered cry of horror went up from the crowd of over 500 Klamath indians, who witnessed the awful spectacle. Walls of deep and bitter anguish went up from the stockade where the wives and children of the poor fellows had a fair view of the shocking scene. The cofflins had been placed directly in the rear of the gallows. Two of them destined to be unocupied as the order committing the sentence of Bancho and Sloluk only arrived at half-past ten o'clock last evening and preparations had been made for their execution with the others. An application was made to Gen. Wheaton by the sheriff of Juckson county, Oregon, for the custody of the Iudians indicted by the Grand Jury but was refused.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla. FOR PURIEYING THE BLOOD, nothing has ever been offered which can compare with this Expracy of Saraparallal. It is found a great promoter of health, when taken in the spring, to expel the humors that rankle in the syring, to expel the humors that rankle in the syring, to expel the humors that rankle in the syring, and in the causes above mentioned, for which no better remedy has ever been devised. By its use multitudes can spare themselves from the endurance of foul eruptions and ulcerous sores, through which the system strives to rid itself of corruptions, if not assisted to do this through the natural channels of the body by an alterative medicine. Cleanse out the vitiated blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in pimples, cruptions, or sorest cleanse it when you find it is obstructed and sluggish in the veins; cleanse it whenever; it is foul, and your feelings will tell you when. Even where no particular disorder is felt, people enjoy better health, and live longer, tor cleansing the blood. Keep the blood healthy, and all is well; but with this pabulum of life disordered, there can be no lasting health, Prepared by Practical and Analytical Chemists, H. L. SPENCER.
