

OAK HALL

HEADQUARTERS FOR CHILDREN'S AND BOYS'
FINE READY-TO-WEAR

*Bright blooming buds of humanity,
Happy as children should always be,
Pity, 'tis true, but the similitude prevails,
A boy with poor clothes—a ship with poor sails.*

SUITS

AND ODD PANTS

A BOY'S Clothes are the outward expression of his training. Find me a neat, tidy boy and I'll show you a well-mannered boy. Poverty or economy are no excuse for lack of refinement. Mothers, bring your boys to Oak Hall and see how we can fix them for so little money.

STRONG SCHOOL SUITS
