

(8)

Prov. Club by certificate from the Club to which he belongs, or by a voucher from his club.

ARTICLE III.

The time and locality of all regular meetings of this club shall be determined at the annual meeting, but the Prov. S O shall be authorized to meet any exigency that may arise.

ARTICLE IV.

Sec. 1. When any member of Prov. Club shall violate his pledge, the secretary of subordinate club to which he belongs shall immediately notify the Prov. Club.

Sec. 2. When the Prov. Sec. is informed that any brother has violated his pledge, he shall be drawn from the order, or ~~ceased~~ and, no member of subordinate club ~~from~~ to ~~any~~ other cause, he shall erase the name of the brother from the roll of Prov. Club, and notice the same in his annual report.

Sec. 3. If there be an appeal entered against the decision of any subordinate club in expelling a member of Prov. Club, the Prov. Sec. shall not erase his name from Prov. roll till said appeal is decided.

Sec. 4. When a subordinate club to which any officer of Prov. Club belongs ceases to exist, he shall retain his seat in Prov. Club until the expiration of his term of office.

ARTICLE V.

No amendment shall be made in these Bye Laws except at the annual meeting.