WEEKLY CALENDAR

Sunday, March 5.—Saints Adrian and Eubulus, martyrs, who suffered death during the persecution of Firmilian, the bloody governor of Palestine. They were executed at Cassarea.

Monday, March 6.—St. Colette, Virgin and member of the Third Order of St. Francis. At the inspiration of St. Francis, she instituted her reform throughout Europe, founding seventeen convents of strict observance. She helped settle difficulties brought about by rival claims to the papal tiara. She died in 1447.

Tuesday, March 7.—St. Thomas Aquinas, the Angelic doctor, one of the greatest Christian teachers of all time. His numerous writings are venerated as a storehouse of sacred doctrine. He overcame many temptations in order to follow his vocation and is remarkable especially for devotion to the Blessed Sacrament, a devotion shown in many of his hymns. He died in 1274.

Wednesday, March 8.—St. John of God, who repenting of a wild life, devoted himself to the ransom of Christian slaves in Africa. He spent ten years in ministering to the suffering. On one occasion after his return to Spain Christ appeared to him in the form of an old man whom he took in from the streets. St. John lost his life in 1550 after he had plunged into a river to rescue a drowning boy.

Thursday, March 9.—St. Frances of Rome. She was married at the age of twelve to a Roman noble and lived a devout life for forty years in the married state, entering the Oblates on the death of her husband. She was favored with the constant sight of her guardian angel. She died in 1440.

Friday, March 10.—The Forty Martyrs of Sebaste, who, in the year 320 refusing to offer sacrifice were torn by scourges and iron hooks and condemned to lie naked on the icy surface of a pond until frozen to death. A soldier standing guard saw an angel descend with thirty-nine crowns, and, while he wondered at the deficiency in number, one of the confessors lost heart and crawled to a nearby fire, where he died instantly. The soldier then confessed Christ and took his place.

Saturday, March 11.—St. Eulogius, a martyr who exhorted many Christians to perseverance during the Mohammedan persecutions at Cordova in the ninth century. He was executed in 859.

SPECIAL ASSISTANCE TO AMERICANS

FOR FILING U. S. INCOME TAX RETURNS NOW DUE FOR THE YEAR 1921

The following American citizens residing in Canada are required to file a United States income tax return, even though no part of their income is derived from the United States:

(a) Every single person, and every married person not living with husband or wife, whose net yearly income was $1,000 or more.

(b) Every married person living with husband or wife, whose yearly net income was $2,000 or more, or whose gross income was $5,000 or more.

The United States return covering the year 1921 should now be filed and must be in the hands of the proper United States internal revenue collector on or before March 15, 1922. There are penalties for failure to file on time, or to pay tax on time.

The tax paid to the Canadian Government may be credited against any tax due the United States, but the Canadian return must be filed first, the Canadian tax paid, and a duplicate of the Canadian receipt filed with the U. S. return.

It was not the intention of the framers of the U. S. income tax law to include provisions that would have a tendency to cause Americans resident abroad to give up their American citizenship.

Special assistance will be rendered Americans in making out their returns by the American consul, London, Ontario.

All Americans desiring such assistance are cordially invited to call at the London consulate.

If the American cannot conveniently come to the London consulate, application should be made to the London consulate for forms, and the forms should be filled out, following carefully the printed instructions on the forms, and then sworn to before a notary public or any other person entitled to administer oaths.

After completion, the returns should be mailed to The U. S. Collector of Internal Revenue for the U. S. district in which the American has his home or place of business. If he has neither of these in the United States, the returns should be sent to the U. S. Collector of Internal Revenue, Baltimore, Maryland.

Any tax due the United States is payable in United States currency, and at least one-fourth of the U. S. tax should accompany the return to the collector on or before March 15, 1922, and one-fourth more every 3 months thereafter. Or, all may accompany the return. Further instructions as to payment are given in No. 11 on one of the forms (1040A.)

It is desired that this notice should be communicated to any other Americans whose incomes are believed to be sufficient for a U. S. return.

No one can tell when U. S. immigration inspectors at the border will be instructed to require from all Americans returning to or visiting the United States evidence of the fulfilment of their U. S. income tax obligations.

G. R. TAGGART,
American Consul,
London, Ontario, Canada.

DRUNKENNESS Can be cured, but not by legislative enactment. Prohibition does not always prohibit. The poor drink addict needs help in the form of medicine—something that will give him a violent distaste for liquor, and also establish resistance of body and will against the drink disease. SAMARIA PRESCRIPTION does this. It is tasteless and can be given in tea, coffee or food with or without the knowledge of the patient. Send three cents for trial treatment. Mailed in plain envelope, enclosing booklet with full directions for use. Included are a few of the many thousand testimonials received from wives of former drink victims, telling of happiness brought to homes through the result of this treatment.

Whole Grain Wheat
Now Sold in Canada

When Marconi startled the world with the invention of wireless telegraphy you believed that the instruments must be of marvellous complexity. Yet today young lads are building wireless apparatus everywhere. Simplicity has always been the attribute of great discoveries. The complexity of our modern foods is the cause of more ills than any other folly. We take the food that God has given us and try to improve upon nature by removing many of the vital food elements.

When you remove the outer coating from the wheat berry in the milling of white flour, for instance, you are taking away the very elements needed for building up the body, leaving starch which, used alone, is a prime cause of indigestion. The body-building proteins of the wheat are found in parts discarded in the milling of white flour. Also are eliminated the rough outer coats upon which nature depends for the prevention of constipation. That is what is done, and people pay for this folly by the long list of more serious ailments which have their origin in constipation and disorders of the digestive tract.

In the United States, one of the most popular foods is WHOLE GRAIN WHEAT. Its use spread like wildfire from the beginning a few years ago. Physicians everywhere endorse it heartily. This food is very simple. It is just wheat, cooked with water, which is completely absorbed in the process, but with this vital difference: WHOLE GRAIN WHEAT is cooked by a patented process which retains every one of the elements of wheat, including the sixteen mineral and three vitamines essential for complete bodily nutrition. WHOLE GRAIN WHEAT is sufficient in itself to completely nourish the body and maintain it in perfect health indefinitely. Combined with whole milk, WHOLE GRAIN WHEAT forms a perfectly balanced ration.

The rights for Canada to produce WHOLE GRAIN WHEAT under the special patented cooking process have been secured by Canadians, and the food is now being offered to the Canadian public. Representatives are being appointed in every part of the Dominion. Applications for agencies are invited. Meantime the Company will send WHOLE GRAIN WHEAT to any address in Canada, charges prepaid. Send for a trial order, remitting by Postal or Express Money Order, and we will ship promptly.

Mutual Protection

To make the lonely road less difficult for the widow—to provide food, clothing and an education for fatherless children—that was the aim the founders of the Mutual Life of Canada had in view when they organized the Company fifty-two years ago.

In order to achieve that purpose at the lowest possible cost to the policyholder the Company was organized on a purely mutual or co-operative basis—so that all profits are returned to the policyholders to reduce the cost of insurance.

The Mutual Life of Canada has held steadfastly to the ideas and ideals of its founders for more than half a century.

The Cross-Bearers Of The Saguenay

By Very Rev. W. R. Harris, D.D., LL.D, Litt. D.

Author of "Pioneers of the Cross," "Days and Nights in the Tropics," "By Path and Trail."

Pres. Publications

Nov. 18, 1920

READERS of Parkman's vivid pages know something of the heroic labors of the early Roman Catholic Missionaries among the Indian savages of Canada. In the book before us, as in several previous works, Dr. Harris continues the study of that fascinating story. The present volume tells particularly of the work carried on among the Algonquins of the Saguenay region. Here the name of the heroic Jesuit, Paul Le Jeune, shines out resplendent. His hardships and suffering as he shared the cold and squalor of the Montagnais lodges and followed the wanderings of the Indians through the winter forest, constitute a record of Christian devotion that has rarely been surpassed. Dr. Harris has given us much more than a missionary narrative. His chapters on the Saguenay country and on the Indian Tribes who made their home there are full of information and of absorbing interest to students of Canadian history.
