tance with the Latin and Greek Grammars, and with any book of any Latin prose writer, and any Latin poot, and of any Greek author which they may select. The examination will be conducted chiefly in writing. No student will be admitted after the close of the first fortnight after opening, but persons not preparing for degrees will be admitted without examination at any time during the term.

The first session will extend over a six months course. After the current collegiate year several important alterations will be introduced. There will be a Winter and summer Term. Instruction when first inserted and in no one case has required with the representation.

The standard for admission will be raised as soon and as high as the improvement in the general education of the Province will warrant. Of these alterations full and timely notice will be given to stull the stull that used in whole Sets, permanent or temporary; Partial Sets of Suction Plates or attached to the natural Teeth with Gold Clasps.
