

forfeit his right, as no arms nor ammunition will be issued after the time so appointed.

SEC. 2.—Any Member neglecting to clean his rifle after ball or blank-cartridge practice, shall be fined fifty cents.

SEC. 3.—Any Member neglecting, after drill or parade, to deliver his bayonet and rifle, with sight, snap, cap, and stopper not in their proper places, shall be fined five cents for each offence.

RULE X.

In the event of the death of a Member, the Company will be notified to attend the funeral; and provided the relatives will allow, the deceased will be buried with military honors due to his rank.

RULE XI.

There shall be no alteration or amendment to these Rules and Regulations unless there be at least one month's notice of such change or alteration, carried by a vote of two thirds of the Members present at a regular meeting of the Company, and approved of by authority of His Excellency the Governor-General and Commander-in-Chief.

It is expected that the foregoing Rules and Regulations will be adhered to by the Company for their own honor, without requiring them to be enforced.
