

An Act respecting the application of Convict Labour, and the punishment of incorrigible offenders.

WHEREAS it is expedient to authorize the Warden of the Provincial Penitentiary to employ Convicts on the grounds of the Criminal Lunatic Asylum, at Rockwood, near Kingston, when occasion may require; And whereas it is expedient to amend the ninth Section of "The Prison Inspection Act, 1857:" Therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Assembly of Canada, enacts as follows :

Preamble.

1. The Warden of the Provincial Penitentiary may, from time to time, under the sanction of the Inspectors of the Provincial Penitentiary, cause to be conveyed and taken from the Penitentiary such and so many Convicts as he may think proper to the Criminal Lunatic Asylum grounds at Rockwood, near the City of Kingston, and there to retain them so long as he may think proper, under such sanction, and cause them to be returned to the Provincial Penitentiary.

Convicts may be taken to Criminal Lunatic Asylum at Rockwood.

2. Such Convicts shall proceed or be conveyed to such Lunatic Asylum grounds and from thence be reconveyed to the Provincial Penitentiary by land or water, as to the said Warden may appear most prudent and desirable, in such manner and under such regulations as shall be provided by the Inspectors of the Provincial Penitentiary; and their conveyance to and fro, and also their employment in and upon the said grounds at Rockwood, shall be done only under the strictest supervision and care of officers appointed to that duty, and under and subject to such written rules and regulations for the transport, regulation and supervision of the Convicts whilst so employed, to be made by the Inspectors of the Provincial Penitentiary, as may be approved by the Governor in Council.

How the conveyance of such convicts to and fro, shall be conducted.

3. The said Penitentiary shall be held to include the carriages, waggons, vehicles, boats, scows or other vessel or vessels of carriage by which the Convicts may be so, from time to time, conveyed, and also any wharf at which the said Convicts may be landed or embarked, and the houses, buildings and erections, and also all and every the grounds at Rockwood, upon which, or any part of which, the said Convicts may be so engaged in labour as aforesaid.

Penitentiary to include Rockwood and the carriages, &c., used for conveying convicts.
