

LITERARY

Et cetera
Her main hobby
Is copying names and dates
Of the dead
In windy graveyards:
Meticulous
From weathered transcripts
Who can no longer
Give a care:
Pages and pages
From freezing fingers
Suddenly caught by a rust
When her pen is up - Scattered like ashes.
Pamela J. Fulton

NOW! he throws it at his gulping maw and lowers his head to acknowledge the shouts and there on his right pant leg - a perfect cow splosh

Pamela J. Fulton

Here lies the dare:
to wait just a little longer while soggy warmth creeps over the sleeping cookie like flash floodwaters up an undervalue - to wait for the exact moment

He leans across mouth open - sucking air poised in that moment between gentleman and slob - when almost half the surface is swollen pregnant
and the edge
heavy and succulent
curls over

DUNKING
Down it goes through the steam - grains of sugar rolling off like sweat in a cookie sauna
