

Club News NB Winless at Nationals

by Claire MacPherson

Rugby, rugby, rugby—oh yes, it's that time of year again.

Players and spectators at the 1995 Senior Women's National Championships were privileged to see some great rugby in New Glasgow, NS on September 2, 3, and 4. No, there aren't any misprints, we are talking WOMEN'S rugby and then some. New Glasgow and the Pictou County Senior Rugby Club hosted a fabulous event (believe me, the beer tent was great), and both clubs are to be congratulated. Players from the eight provinces represented received accolades for the high quality of rugby played.

British Columbia successfully defended their first seed ranking while Ontario displaced Alberta to take second. But most importantly is the fact that New Brunswick fielded a team for the first time. Although we won no games, everyone was very impressed with the quality of rugby put forth by our players.

In our first game against BC, Karrie Hill of Shediac scored a try, as did Lisa Johnson of Saint John in our second game against Saskatchewan.

Nova Scotia also made an impressive showing by winning two games—marking their first wins in their three year history at the Nationals. Another important milestone at the Nationals this year was the presence of Josee Ferrero, the first female rugby referee to be internationally certified in Canada. New Brunswick had the privilege to have Ms Ferrero as a referee at three of our four games.

All in all, the girls from the NB Provincial Team played great rugby and I would like to thank them all for the hard work they put into the team. However, since this is The Brunswickan, I will give special recognition to the UNB (staff and students) ladies from the team: Nicole Baker, Tanya Horgan, Lesley James, and MJ Richards, all players for UNB. Sue Power from UNB-SJ and Michelle Cole, (and, of course, myself) who play for the Lady Loyalists.

The women's fall season starts this Saturday, Sept. 16, with UNB at UPEI and Mt.A here against the Loyalists. Both games are at 2:00 p.m.. Come out and support women's rugby in a great season.
