Ottawa-
Dear Mr. Meighin- In pursuance of your interview last Wednesday when you were good enough ^{to grant} me a few days to consult Mrs. Macdill before accepting one of the vacant supreme Court judgeships of Ontario, I now beg to advise you that I have decided to accept that position. In doing so I have a vague sense of passing into a mausoleum as Mr. Taft said the other day regarding his appointment.
Both Mrs. Macdill & I have enjoyed the political life and the many friends we have made.
We have built and improved
