annual interest of these shares will be paid to Andrew and Dehlia if it appears to the Superintendent General that they are in need of it.

You should secure a declaration from the father of these minors setting forth the date of their birth. You should also secure from Agnes and Josephine when their shares are paid to them a release of all their claims against the estate. All these documents together with a statement of the receipts and disbursements made by you accompanied by your declaration that the same are correct should be forwarded to the Department to be placed on file.

Your obedient servant,

James C. [Signature]
Deputy Superintendent General of Indian Affairs.
