

we haven't been, above a minute. We had dinner <sup>including ourselves!</sup> Christmas night, and on Friday, Jean's birthday, we had tea for dinner. Tomorrow we will not celebrate at all so it occurs up! I am sending you the other four table napkins which I finished last night. I had a sad tangle with one! I was sitting by the grate and spoke them out & slip my hand. I couldn't find it, but later found the hole it had burned in the napkin! I am sending it to you as it is, for I said 'make it'. I found got them for me in Montreal and I haven't found the same pattern here. I need will have to watch, I give you the damned one, when he sees them! I am very sorry but it was a most unexpected accident! Sorry they are late, but this year I have sacrificed everything in order to help John & Mary who really needed me.

Everyone admires the picture of the trip I send. I am thrilled to have it, as I didn't know there was one. I am so glad you framed it for us, for it is so easy to put off doing things which are not absolutely necessary.
 We were all very busy at Christmas, & I had a present to be wrapped! The present for me had a suit & hat which were much needed!
 I got a morning gown, underwear etc. I do
