

CONTENTS

vii

CHAPTER V

	PAGE
QUALIFICATIONS AND TRAINING OF TEACHERS FOR AUXILIARY CLASSES	103

Personal qualifications, 105. Professional qualifications, 106-8, 110-11. School Medical Inspector and School Nurse, 109. Special courses in American Universities, Medical Schools, and Normal Schools, 111.

CHAPTER VI

THE AUXILIARY CLASS-ROOM AND ITS EQUIPMENT	119
--	-----

Number of pupils in the class, lighting, heating, ventilation, furniture and equipment, 119. Garden, meals, bathing, toilets, 123. Materials, supplies, implements and tools, books and pictures, flowers and music, 124. Supervision and transportation, 125.

CHAPTER VII

THE COURSE OF STUDY	127
-------------------------------	-----

Mental and physical powers of defectives, 128. Preliminary training—physical and sensory, 130. General training and industrial training, 132. Age limits of training, 137. Productive work, 137. Montessori method, 140. Occupations, music, gardening, 143. Daily programme: summary of course of study, 144.

CHAPTER VIII

COST OF ESTABLISHING SUCH SCHOOLS	151
---	-----

Ratio of staff to inmates, 151. The Cottage system, the Industrial Training School and Farm Colony, 152. Opinion of superintendents as to limit of number of inmates, extent of grounds, planning of buildings, equipment, cost, 152.

APPENDIXES

A. ADVICE TO PARENTS	157
B. ONTARIO ACT RESPECTING AUXILIARY CLASSES	163
C. OUTLINE OF WORK, ADAPTED FROM PHILADELPHIA COURSE	167
D. SENSE EXERCISES; A REPRINT OF A SERIES IN USE IN PHILADELPHIA	181
E. BIBLIOGRAPHY	191