

By-Laws.

NAME AND OBJECTS.

1. The name of this Society shall be "First British Columbia Society of Spiritualists."

2. The objects are as follows:—

a. The support of public lectures, private and public meetings, seances, and the building of a hall and lecture room.

b. The establishment, support and maintenance of a library, lyceums and such other scientific undertakings as may be deemed best by the Society for the furtherance and investigation of the claims of Spiritualism.

c. To stimulate the mind to the freest thought on all subjects, especially the spiritual philosophy and cognate matters; to quicken philanthropic impulses; stimulating enlightening and unselfish labors for human good, under the assurance that the redeemed and exalted spirits of the human race are encompassing them as a cloud of witnesses, inspiring to the work and aiding forward to a certain and glorious time.

MEMBERSHIP.

3. Any person desirous of becoming a member of this Society shall be proposed by a member at