FROM GODERICH.

ST. PETER'S CHURCH BAZAR.

The bazaar under the auspices of St. Peter's R. C. Church, which commenced on Dominion Day, was continued until Saturday evening. Considering the dull times, the result was good, the receipts amounting to $601. On Dominion Day some 300 persons were dined, and the various useful and fancy articles offered by the ladies found ready buyers.

The ladies of the congregation deserve much credit for their efforts to make visitors satisfied. They worked hard to make the bazaar a success, and in their efforts were well supported by Mr. Thos. Troy, and several other gentlemen.

The silver ice pitcher for the most popular lawyer, led to a close contast, and the sum of $142 was realized on it. M. G. Cameron led his opponent, F. W. Johnston, at the close of the poll.

The gold watch offered to the young lady who sold the most tickets on the ice pitcher was won by Miss Mary A. Mullen, who is one of the most popular in town. Father Watters desires us to return his sincere thanks to all those who took such an interest in the hazaar, the ladies deserving especial credit.

The following is a list of the winners in the drawing of prizes:

1st prize—1699—The prize donated by Bishop Walsh, won by Mrs. Quinn, of Trenton.

2nd—3150—A beautiful album, won by Lizzie Bailey, of Goderich.

3rd—652—Treasury of Song, won by Mr. Nathan, of Courtright.

4th—4508—Dressing case, won by Sol. Wright, of London.

5th—3203—Silver sugar bowl, won by R. J. Murphy, of Dublin.

6th—3527.—Silver cruet, won by Curry, of Brantford.

OBITUARY.

MR. JOHN M'CUE.

We deet regret to chronicle the death of Mr. John Joseph McCue, which occurred on Saturday last, at the residence of his father, in this city. Deceased was the eldest son of John McCue, Eag., an old and highly respected titizen of London. He was a young man of great promise, a fervent Catholic and highly esteemed by all who had the pleasure of his acquaintance. He died fortified by the secraments of the church. A solemn requiem mass was celebrated in St. Peter's Cathedral on Tuesday morning by Rev. Father Tiernan, for the repose of his soul. The reverend gentleman referred in touching terms to the many noble qualities of the late Mr. McCue. A very large congregation of sorrowing relatives and friends was present. May his soul rest in peace.

Profit and Loss.

What is your gain is our loss in the removal of Dr. Hanover from Seaforth to your town, and we trust that the Dr. may be the gainer also. We loose in the Dr. a whole-souled gentleman and one high and eminently successful in his profession, whose genial good-nature has shed a warmth on the society in which he moved while amongst us. We will miss him very much, but trust that your people will give him that hearty welcome that he so richly deserves.

Truly yours,

They do not Feel Able.

There are many obstacles to the success of a Catholic paper, but the main one proceeds from the meanness of certain Catholics. One of our subscribers, tain Catholics. One of our subscribers, who has received the paper for the last eleven months, and who has never paid a cent for it, writes to us: "Please discontinue the Monitor, as I do not feel able to take it any longer." Times must be terribly hard, indeed! And if we did not know our correspondent to be worth $10,000, we would be tempted to start a subscription list for his relief.
