A Physician's Testimony
for Labatt's Ale

"We find that the ale uniformly and well agreed with the patients, that it stimulated the appetite, and thereby increased nutrition. The taste, likewise, is always highly spoken of. In nervous women, we found that a glass at bedtime acted as a very effective and harmless hypnotic."—SUPERINTENDENT OF would not be inappropriate if printed on a life insurance policy, as the additional obligations and responsibilities entailed by marriage may be met to a great extent by means of a contract of life insurance.

At the very outset of married life it is the incumbent duty of a man to furnish his wife with a reasonable amount of insurance protection, so that in event of his untimely death she should not be left unprovided for, as is so often the case.
