

amended, or by this Act is provided, shall not exceed the sum of twenty pounds, then the said Duties shall be paid down by the Importer, or person making the entry thereof before any Permit shall be granted for the Goods contained in such entry; but if the amount of such Colonial Duties shall exceed the sum of twenty pounds, then the Importer shall give bond with two sufficient sureties, to be approved of by the Collector of Impost in treble the Duties payable on such goods, with a condition for the payment of said Duties by instalments, and in manner following, that is to say:—One fourth part of said Duties in six months, another fourth part thereof in nine months, and the remaining half part thereof in one year from the date of such bond respectively, and such bond shall be given therefor in the manner and form prescribed by the Board of Revenue, and a Warrant of Attorney, shall also then and there be executed by the same parties, and in the form by the said Board to be directed for the confession of a Judgment for the amount of the said bond in case default should happen to be made in payment of any instalment thereof: Provided always, that when Goods shall have been warehoused above one year, then the Colonial Duty, if exceeding twenty pounds shall be payable one half in three months, and the other half in six months from the date of the entry from Warehouse, and the bond shall be made accordingly.

IV. And be it enacted, That instead of the period of twenty days allowed by the twenty-seventh clause of the said Act hereby continued and amended for the entry inwards of Goods after the arrival of the importing ship, there shall be allowed for such entry six days only after such arrival, and if due entry inwards be not made within six days, it shall and may be lawful to proceed as in and by the said clause is directed, in the same manner as if the said period of six days had been inserted in such clause, instead of twenty days as therein mentioned.

V. And be it enacted, That if any Goods which are not charged with Colonial Duties, according to the number, measure, weight, or tale thereof, shall receive damage during the voyage, an abatement of such duties shall be allowed in proportion to the damage so received; provided proof be made to the satisfaction of the Board of Revenue or any Officer of the Colonial Revenue acting therein, under their direction that such damage was received after the Goods were shipped abroad in the ship importing the same, and before they were landed, and provided claim to such abatement of Duties be made at the time of the first examination of such Goods.
