FORMER NOVA SCOTIA FEOPLE IN SHOOTING TRAGEDY IN STATES

'AMHERST, Dec. 15 .- The News last night published an account of a shooting tragedy in Providence, R. I., recently in which Cumberland county people are involved. The account, which taken from the Providence Daily fournal of December 3rd, has the fol-

James C. Fillmore, 52 years old, shot and probably fatally wounded his wife, Mrs. Etta Filmore, aged 43, and made murderous attack upon George W. Robblee, a grocer, and then took his own life by sending a bullet into his brain at the home of his wife, Burnett street, in Elmwood, just after four o'clock yesterday afternoon.' James Fillmore belonged to Millsvale, and was a son of Robert Fillmore, this county. His wife was Etta Freeman, a daughter of the late Daniel Freeman, and she and her husband have been estranged for some years. When Mrs. Fillmore last resided in Amherst, after leaving her husband, she occupied the esidence over her brother's, A. M. Freeman, store at the corner of Vicola and LaPlanche steets, where the Bank of Montreal now stands. She was a woman of exceptionally fine racter, and no fault for the estrangement was due to her. The second victim of the tragedy was the nly grocer who had just called to take an order.

Mrs. Fillmore has two sisters, Mrs. Baird and Mrs. Hoeg, living in this county. Her brother Arthur, who formcarried on a grocery business here is now living in California. The family were one of the oldest and most highly respected in the county. The account further states that Mrs. Fillmore's chances for recovery are extremely slim.
