A SPLENDID CROWD AT "A NIGHT IN DREAMLAND"

Military Evening Proved a Splendid Success at Grand Opera House—Brilliant Performance Will be Produced for Last Time To-night.

The military evening of the Night in Dreamland production was a magnificent success. The scarlet dress tunics of the officers of the 25th Brant Dragoons and the effective blue and red of the Dufferin Rifles officers were much and prettily evident, intermingled among the vast audience.

The first performance of the fantasy was meritorious, the second was equally so. Last night perhaps the corners were rounded off, and the players had to some extent got over their first performance thrills. If such can be said, it was perhaps a little more natural. From the opening score with the blind beggar on the stage, to the grand finale, there was not a flaw that could be laid at the feet of the company performers.

Will Be Tried By a Judge

HAMILTON, Ont. April 22.—A. B. MacKay, the prominent navigation man, charged with immorality, elected to-day to be tried by a judge without a jury. His trial is set for June 16. Bail was renewed at $2,000. The service of summons of MacKay and James N. Gow some weeks ago, caused a great sensation here. Gow, who was also a prominent business man, committed suicide by slashing his throat with a razor after the police court hearing in which several young girls testified.

City News Items

Board Meets. The Board of Police Commissioners is meeting this afternoon at 2:30 to dispose of routine business.

Stars to Meet. The Eagle Place Star baseball club members will hold an important meeting at Reed and Trunover's store, Dalhousie street on Thursday evening.

Zion Church Guild. The Young People's Guild of Zion Church held a most enjoyable social last evening. After the usual opening exercises Miss Maude Taylor, convenor of the social committee, took charge. The first part of the program consisted of a vocal solo by Miss Thomas; violin solo by Master E. Gamble; vocal solo by Miss Hope Doeringer and a reading by Miss G. Cronke all of which were very much appreciated, after which there was a guessing contest and refreshments were then served.

Had Good Record. Some Sunday schools that made a good record at the Friday evening meeting were omitted from the report that appeared after the meeting. Among those worthy to be mentioned are: First Baptist which had 28 out of 33 others and teachers present; Oxford street Methodist with 17 out of 18 present; Elm avenue church with 10 out of 14 present; Gospel Tabernacle with 20 out of 26 present; Rev. R. D. Hamilton's class of Wellington St. Methodist church with 110 on roll and 70 present; Mr. J. H. Teakle's class "Mbaraca" of Gospel Tabernacle with 26 on roll and 23 present; Mrs. Acker's class "Try Company" of Gospel Tabernacle with 23 on roll and 19 present.

Soft Ball Meeting. At a meeting of the soft ball league held last night in the Y. M. C. A., a schedule for the coming season was drawn up and some changes were made in the constitution of the league. Thirty-six games will be played this year instead of twenty-four—games being played on Tuesday's and Thursday nights at Recreation Park. The first game will be played Tuesday, May 12, and will continue until September 15th. The entrance fee was changed from $5 to $15, the difference being the fact that the league will this year furnish the balls instead of the teams. Each player must be a resident of the city for 30 days previous to the opening of the season and each team is limited to 15 players. No player can get his release from one team to play with another after July 1st. The members of the league are very enthusiastic about the prospects for this year's teams, and a big year is expected.

Concert at Wellington St.

The 79th anniversary of the First Methodist Sunday school was celebrated at Wellington street on Sunday and Monday, when stirring addresses were given to the scholars on Sunday by the Rev. W. R. W. J. Feldkamp, and the pastor, the Rev. R. D. Hamilton. On the afternoon a special open session of the school was held when Mr. W. G. Ranton occupied the chair. Splendid and inspiring addresses were given, and the young people spent a most profitable time, special music being rendered by the Sunshine Choir. The evening service was equally enjoyable, Rev. W. R. Smith being heard at his best, and he moved his hearers at will.

On Monday evening one of the best entertainments ever presented by the scholars of a local Sunday school, was presented to a well filled hall. The first part was composed of solos, recitations and chorus songs, members of the primary department, Misses Phoebe Rockwood, Nellie Tollhurst, Sina Cooper, Helen Daniels and Margaret Ryerson, and Masters Jack McEan, Earnest Hutchinson, Chaire Thompson and Hilary Wallis were especially deserving of praise. Part two was given by the elder scholars and consisted of drills, solos, instrumental solos, recitations, and a dialogue. Ray Waterson and Warren Buskard were very clever, and among the ladies who contributed greatly to the success of the evening were Leone Brenner, Ruby Cann, Grace Lake and Dorothy Feun. Mr. Dewitler's class provided excellent orchestral accompaniment.

The awards were then made to the twenty-one star scholars who had made a perfect record during the year. They were as follows: Teacher, Mrs. Whelan—Grace Lake, Leotta Taylor, Helen Wiles, Gladys Davidson. Teacher, Miss Gimby—Hazel Ryerson. Teacher, Mrs. Wallace—Rae Waterson, Edith Beech. Teacher—Mrs. Irvine—Bruce Irwin.

BRANTFORD LADIES

Were Guests at Hotel Which Was Burnt Out in Florida. Three Brantford ladies, Mrs. Oldham, Mrs. Ott and Mrs. Yeigh who returned recently from St. Augustine, Fla., tell an interesting story of the fire which destroyed the hotel they stayed at while in that city. These ladies had left the hotel for home only a few days, before the disastrous fire commenced and thus escaped with all their belongings. Mrs. Oldham received a letter from an acquaintance she made at the same hotel while in that city in which she stated that she and her brother had lost everything in the blaze. The hotel was a frame structure and the fire spread through it like paper. At the first alarm of fire this lady lady scrambled out of bed and rushed to the next room where her brother a cripple was sleeping. She roused him and together they started for the stairway, but before they had gone ten feet the flames cut them off. Together they hurried out on to the balcony, where they were rescued by ladders. All their personal effects were lost and their experience was one they will never forget. Mrs. Oldham, Mrs. Ott and Mrs. Yeigh are congratulating themselves on leaving when they did.

Dropped Dead

A despatch from Hamilton says—"Mrs. James Kinney of Detroit, who came to this city to attend the funeral of her nephew, Leon Ward, who was electrocuted near Brantford last Friday, dropped dead on King street near James street last evening while shopping. She appeared to be in her usual health when she left her home. Paralysis of the heart is supposed to have caused her death."

A co-operative society has been started in Welland and a store is to be opened.
