The last one on the plate

Even so, take it. The rule of etiquette is temporarily suspended when biscuits of Horton Flour are on the table. Flaky, light, white, with delicate crisp-brown tops, they are simply delicious served steaming hot with maple syrup or with plain sweet country butter. No wonder the plate is cleared as if by magic. What higher tribute could be paid to Mother's skill in cookery and incidentally to the uniformity and high-grade qualities of Horton Flour. Grocers sell and are glad to recommend—

WAR NEWS.

Paris, Jan. 30—A Zeppelin dirigible passed swiftly over a section of Paris last night, dropping about a dozen great bombs, which killed 24 persons and injured 27.

The raid lasted about one minute and a half, while in the first visit of Zeppelins to Paris, on March 21, 1915, four of these aircraft were over or in the neighborhood of the Capital for nearly two hours. They came at that time under entirely different atmospheric conditions, being plainly visible in a clear sky. Last night the fog seriously interfered with the work of the Paris aerial guard.

The fact that only one German machine appeared leads to the belief that the Zeppelin was making a reconnoitering trip, and the supposition is that the Germans have in view a similar operation on a larger scale.

Warnings of the presence of a Zeppelin were hastily given, and the lights of Paris were dimmed. At the hour of the raid the theatres and cafes were open, and householders had hardly yet retired. Almost immediately all the aeroplanes guarding Paris were made ready, and about thirty of them took the air. One of these machines fired 24 shots from a quick-firer at the invading craft, which, pursued by several of the little machines, sped at top speed westward. Apparently the bombs carried by the Zeppelin were let loose indiscriminately, and without thought of where they should strike.

One of the pursuing aviators said that the searchlights were useless in the fog, he himself being hardly able to see more than twenty-four feet above with the aid of his light. The Paris newspapers demand that measures of retaliation be taken immediately.

Another Zeppelin raid on Paris was threatened Sunday night, warnings being sounded throughout the city, and crowds gathering to watch for the appearance of the raider and the attack on it, which was sure to be made should it come within sighting distance of the cordon of aeroplanes guarding the capital.

Berlin reports that all the ground the Germans gained in their latest offensive in the vicinity of Neuville and South of the Somme river remains in their hands, despite strong French attacks. The position captured South of the Somme, says the Berlin communication, is 3,500 yards in length, and 1,000 in depth. Seventeen officers and 1,270 men, among them several Englishmen, were made prisoners.

Paris says that in fresh attacks opposite Dompierre, South of the Somme, the Germans were twice repulsed.

Little fighting has been going on at the Russian front, except near Uscieczko, on the Bukowina frontier where repeated attacks by the Russians against the Austro-Hungarians are declared by Vienna to have been repulsed.

In the Balkans the situation is quiet. There have been the usual bombardments on the Austro-Italian front.

The situation in the Caucasus and Mesopotamia, where the Turks are battling respectively with the Russians and the British, is virtually unchanged. Near Felahie, it was asserted, the Turks captured a thousand camels from the British.

Petrograd on the other hand, reports that to the North of Ezerum the Russians continue their advance, taking prisoners and capturing machine guns. The pursuit of the Turks South of Lake Urumiah continues.

Apparently pleased with his visit to Berlin, where he had conferences with German officials, Col. Edward M. House, personal representative of President Wilson, has departed for Switzerland.

From the outbreak of the war to Jan. 8, the recruits raised by Ireland numbered 86,277, according to the report of Baron Wimborne, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, published tonight (Jan. 31.) He estimates that at the present time there are about four hundred thousand unattested single men of military age in Ireland, but deducting those indispensable for agriculture, commerce and the production of munitions, and those medically unfit for service, concludes that the single men actually available would hardly exceed one hundred thousand.

The casualty list posted at midnight (Jan. 31) contains the names of three Nova Scotians, Private Joseph H. Wentzell, of Berwick, died of wounds, and Sergeant B. H. Landels of River Hebert and Private John Gillis of Inverness County, wounded. Private Wentzell was a member of the 13th Battalion. Private Gillis was a member of the 16th Battalion and Sergeant Landels of the Princess Pats.

A despatch from Ottawa states that St. Francis Xavier College is to send hospital unit to the front representing that university. This will be pleasing news to the people of eastern Nova Scotia, and indeed to the whole province, whose people have already seen a similar hospital unit leave its shores.

There has been little fighting of late anywhere in any of the war theatres, except by the artillery. German positions at Steenstraete, to the south of Roze, and to the north of St. Mihiel, have come under the guns of the entente allies on the western line and considerable damage has been done.

The Italians and the Austrians have opened another fierce artillery duel along the Isonzo front of the Austro-Italian line. No reports have been received from the Balkans, except a semi-official statement from Berlin that the Italians have thrown up another infantry division and several batteries of artillery in Aviona, Albania, their intentions being to hold this important port against the advance of the Austro-Hungarians.

A military order has been received at the Austrian village of Hochts, near the Swiss frontier, for delivery of the larger church bells and of copper from roofs of churches to the authorities for the manufacture of war munitions.

ZEPPELINS AGAIN RAID ENGLAND

London, Feb. 1—A raid by 6 or 7 Zeppelin airships took place last night over the eastern, northeastern and Midland counties of England, according to an announcement of the war office. A number of bombs were dropped, but up to the present no considerable damage has been reported.

The twenty thousand extra Canadian troops, who are shortly to leave Canada for England, are those who, as previously intimated, will take the place at the English training headquarters of the fourth Canadian division. The latter has been accepted, and in a few weeks will move across the channel to France.

Lt. Col. John Stanfield, M. P., who has been appointed to raise and command a new Nova Scotia regiment, was in Halifax, and discussed the matter of his regiment with headquarters officials. Colonel Stanfield left for Truro on Monday night. The new regiment will be known as the 193rd.

HE STRUCK IT RIGHT AT LAST

After Suffering Almost Two Years, "Fruit-a-tives" Brought Relief.

MR. WHITMAN
882 St. Valier St., Montreal.

"In 1912, I was taken suddenly ill with Acute Stomach Trouble and dropped in the street. I was treated by several physicians for nearly two years. I was in constant misery from my stomach and my weight dropped down from 225 pounds to 160 pounds. Several of my friends advised me to try 'Fruit-a-tives' and I did so. That was eight months ago. I began to improve almost with the first dose. No other medicine I ever used acted so pleasantly and quickly as 'Fruit-a-tives', and by using it I recovered from the distressing Stomach Trouble, and all pain and Constipation and misery were cured. I completely recovered by the use of 'Fruit-a-tives' and now I weigh 203 pounds. I cannot praise 'Fruit-a-tives' enough".

Germany has made unexpected concessions to the United States demands with regard to her submarine warfare. Up to the present time a German promise has been almost invariably followed by another outrage.

"Today the enemy exploded a mine at Fricourt, and also one east of Cuinchy. No damage was done. We sprung a mine east of Givenchy.
