Pardon me for troubling you, but I want to ask you a question or two. All right, go ahead, it's no trouble. Well have you ever used any of the California Perfumes' Company's Toilet articles, and what can you tell me about them? I can tell you several things about them. In the first place they are all good articles and such a nice variety and the person (who is agent and takes orders for them here) Miss Grace Rappell, is accommodating and I like to buy from her because she needs any help we can give her and she puts her profits to good use. Any time you can make use of Toilet articles just give Miss Grace a call and she will be glad to show the California advt. book and latest prices or the articles themselves as she keeps some things on hand all the time. I am going to get more from Grace.

North Augusta Wedding

A quiet wedding was solemnized at 12 o'clock noon, June 2, at the Methodist parsonage, of Miss Minerva Maud Dulmage, eldest daughter of Walter Dulmage, and William Lorne Durant, son of Charles Durant, of Augusta. The Rev. Fred Horton performed the ceremony. The bride, who was attended by her brother, Arthur, was becomingly attired in navy blue silk with hat to match. The bridesmaid was Miss Irene Robinson, cousin of the bride. The groomsmen was the recipient of a gold tie pin, and the bridesmaid of a gold brooch. After the ceremony a dinner was served at the residence of the bride's aunt, Mrs. Alex. Robinson. The happy couple left on the p.m. train for Ottawa for a short honeymoon. We extend a wish to Mr. and Mrs. Durant for a long and happy life.
