Cheaper Than Ever...

We simply will not carry any of our summer stock over if low prices will sell them. We have cleared out a large number of lines, and at the prices we now have them marked, they ought to be all gone this week.

Some lines are as low as half price, with others not quite so much, but all of them are certainly very much below our original cost.

ON THE BEACH OF LAKE ERIE

While the Elements Raged the Merry Makers of the Driftwood Club Entertained.

Unique and Delightful Function at Erie—Charming Social Event Which All Enjoyed.

Saturday night from eight until twelve o'clock was devoted to one grand celebration of the Erie season, by the residents of the bar. The summer citizens of this popular resort are a royal crowd and each year they devote one evening to a general gathering of all for a good time. Generally a bon fire on the beach and corn roast or a fly pull has been the feature. This year, however, owing to the lack of band concerts, it was decided that a hop would be much appreciated. The Driftwood Club, of which Mrs. A. C. Woodward and Miss Greening were the prime spirits, took charge of the evening. The success of the dance. Invitations were sent out on sand paper as a fitting emblem of the bar. The result was that Saturday night the population of the bar was doubled. At eight o'clock a merry crowd gathered at the Bungalow where a very pretty sight awaited them. The dining room and sitting room had been cleaned and decorated with a very pleasing effect. The Driftwood Club took charge of the evening and the members worked. The result was delightful and the room was a bower of brightness and brilliance. The profusion of red flags and other decorations gave a very effective when the girls arrived with their white dresses and the boys in their white duck trousers and blue coats, the scene was a very pretty one indeed. The chaperones, patronesses and patrons were there in full force to lend a touch of sedateness to the otherwise gay proceedings. Among the number were Mr. and Mrs. G. T. Woodward, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. T. McKeough, Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Falls, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Harper, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Greening, Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Glen, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Phillimore, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Campbell, Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Northwood, Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Falls and others.

From eight until almost twelve o'clock, the merry summer residents danced or sat out on the wide veranda and enjoyed the music and the wild weird night. Across the lake, the lightning flashed and the heavens looked wild and stormy. The sun on the shore droned away and the music and laughter relieved that monotony.

Thos. Massonville, James Robinson and Geo. Taylor furnished the music.

At 11.45 the "Home Sweet Home" waltz concluded the festivities and then all the party joined in singing God Save the King.

Those who worked so industriously for the success of the hop were: Mrs. A. C. Woodward, the Misses Greening, the Misses Morrison, Miss Thomas, Miss Alice Samson, Miss Young, Miss Susan Taylor, Miss Grace Jones. The young ladies were assisted in the decorating by Miss Prentice, of Cleveland.
