OR SALE

subscriber now offers to sell two land, each 140 feet x 50 feet, in the Town of Wolfville, Nova for the sum of one hundred $5.
(the two lots).

said lots were conveyed to the owner by Deed dated the 26th 894, from "The Wolfville Fruit Improvement Company Limited," sum of two hundred and eight (in cash), having been sold by Company, by the aid of the supported by the testimony of gent and influential men of Wolf-choice building lots.—This is for a rare investment, as on so of the management and method d by the said Company, all lots ore sold by them and surround-lands will probably continue to e in price in the future at the rate as during the last three or purchasers are respectfully re-to Dr. G. E. DeWitt, of Wolfville, resident of the said Company, for tion of the excellence and beauty e said building lots) which may e apparent on inspection to be of thoroughly acclimatized in the of Evangeline." The said two are described in the Deed as Lot

BUILDING LOTS.

THE TOWN OF WOLFVILLE, on Wolf-Highlands. Situated from three to minutes walk from Acadia University Halls and the public school.

SPECIAL ADVANTAGES ARE that immediately in rear of the lots can be purchased at reasonable res. The land is covered with pine, and apple trees, just coming into
ing. The purchasers have the priviof buying from 25 to 10,000 trees. notice is genuine and not within the non-acclimatized? nor is it conspicuously advertising the accommodations and merits of domestic individual, or to beguile the unwary, to invite the public to come and see these things be true.

The Mount Allison course of special university sermons was successfully inaugurated in Lingley Hall, Sackville, last Sunday by Bishop Courtney. He preached an eloquent sermon, taking his text from Mark iv, 26-29. The sermon was characterized throughout by ease of delivery, graphic word-painting and touching appeal. In the morning the Bishop conducted morning prayer in the college chapel and gave an interesting address to the students.

pretty wedding took place at the residence of Mr Robert Shaw, when his daughter, Madge, was united in wedlock with Mr Fred E. Cox, both of this place.

Rev. Joseph Murray, Falmouth, officiated. The bride and groom took the evening express for Halifax. They will visit St. John and then return to Middleton, where they intend to make their home. The bride, who has been one of our ready-helpers will be greatly missed from our circle. The best wishes of the community follow her and her husband.
