Tuesday was a busy day for the Wolfville merchants. The streets and stores were thronged with people and probably the biggest day's trade was done in the history of the town.

Do you know any present that can be bought for $1.00 that would be more appreciated by an absent friend than the ACADIAN every week for a year? It gives all the home news.

Man's stitched Initial Pure Silk Hosiery only 20¢, at Borden's.

Men's, boy's and youth's Lingerie, various kinds, at the PEOPLE'S SHOE STORE.

The death of Mr. O. C. Veas, for several years a highly respected citizen of this town, occurred on Friday last, at his residence on Acadia street, after a brief illness. The funeral took place, with Masonic ceremonies, on Sunday afternoon, Rev. E. O. Hind conducting the service. Mr. Veas was formerly for many years engaged in business in Halifax, and came here to reside about seven years ago. He leaves one daughter, Mrs. Veas, with whom he resided.

A present of a nicely embossed Clothes Brush will be given to every customer purchasing a $1.00 worth of goods and upwards, on Saturday, Dec. 24. This day only. Glasgow House, O. D. Harris, See adv.

The marriage of Captain Frank L. Davison and Miss Alice M. Shaw took place at Hantsport on Monday afternoon. The groom is a brother of Mr. H. W. Davison, of this place, and the bride was formerly a resident of Wolfville and has many friends here. The ACADIAN extends congratulations.

Mr. M. McFadden, of Canaan, was up before Stipendiary Magistrate C. H. Eaton at Canaan last week for violation of the Scott Act. Four convictions were made against him, amounting to $235 with costs.
