GRAND FALLS

The Chautauqua this year which closed its entertainment here Tuesday was the best ever.

The town schools opened on Tuesday morning, Sept. 2.

Mrs. E. Elgee and Mrs. Knight of New Jersey were visiting relatives here last week.

Mrs. Morell and Miss Lena Burgess went to Presque Isle to attend the Fair on Monday.

Mrs. R. Peppers of Fredericton is visiting her brother, J. J. Evans. Miss Laura Mulherin left this week for Boston where she will spend the winter.

Mr. R. Watson and little daughter Helen of Boston who have been visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Watson, returned home this week.

Mrs. A. Rainsford and daughter, Miss Mary H. Rainsford have gone to Boston and New York where they will spend the autumn and winter months.

Miss Jennie Watson of Andover was in town by auto last week.

Rev. Mr. Franchetti of Edmundston was in town Sunday and Monday.

Mrs. George MacMillan and son Hermon returned Monday from a visit in Plaster Rock and Perth.

Mrs. J. Austin visited her daughter Mrs. Hitchcock at Ortonville on Tuesday and Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. M. O. Regan are in St. John a few days this week.

Stanley Chapman spent the weekend in Woodstock with friends.

L. Guy and George Legacy have gone back to attend college in Quebec.

Herbert Kelly has moved into his new home which he purchased from Mrs. F. Estey.

A little girl was seen giving her dog her pudding. Her mother told her not to give her own pudding, but only what was left from the plates. The child obeyed, and taking it to the dog, said: "Doggie, I meant this to be an offering, but it's only a collection."

A Scotchman went to the box-office after witnessing the new film.

"Will ye kindly retain me the amount of the amusement tax," he said.

"Why," asked the manager. "I wasna amused," said the Scotchman.

During gun practice a sudden cry of "Man overboard" was raised. The captain promptly shouted an order. "Throw out two buoys."

A new Irish sailor, seizing hold of two lads who were standing near, flung them into the sea.

"You idiot," shouted the captain, "I meant two cork buoys."

"Bedad," retorted Mike, "how was I to know whether they came from Cork or Tigeray?"

Two students on a train were telling about their abilities to see and hear. The one said: "Do you see that barn over there on the horizon?"

"Yes."

"Can you see that fly walking around on the roof of that barn?"

"No, but I can hear the shingles crack when he steps on them."

There was a good deal of excitement in the village when notices appeared on the boardings announcing that the local minister would, that night, address a meeting at the Assembly Hall, on the subject of "The Perfect Woman—Where is She?"

He had quite a good audience, and soon got warmed up to his subject.

"Now," he said, during the course of his address, "I ask you, has anyone ever seen or heard of a perfect woman?"

Suddenly, from the back of the hall, rose a tall, gaunt, angular woman in rusty black. In a melancholy voice she said:

"Yes, sir, I have heard of the woman you mention."

"Who was it?" inquired the speaker. "My husband's first wife," replied the gaunt one feelingly.

Here and There

Although Alberta only became a province eighteen years ago, its population has increased fourfold, while the grain yield has increased twentyfold. The total agricultural products of Alberta in 1923 were worth $223,000,000.

The scheme for the settlement of British emigrants in Canada may assume a new aspect as a result of the presence in London, England, of the Hon. J. A. Robb, Canadian Minister of Immigration. Canada favors the movement of entire families to Canada from Great Britain, rather than that of single men.

Among the biggest muscalungees caught this year was one landed at the Canadian Pacific Railway's French River (Ont.) Bungalow Camp, by Samuel Franklin, Southern Sales Manager of Claffins, Inc., New York City. Mr. Franklin had a light tackle and had never hooked a lunge before. He had a hard fight to secure the fish, which tipped the scale at 38½ pounds.

A total of 13,743 Canadians, most of them native-born, has been repatriated from the United States during the months of April, May and June, according to figures announced by the Department of Immigration. During these three months 53,425 persons immigrated to Canada, which represented an increase of 12,292 over the same period of last year.

Marquis wheat, originated at the Dominion Experimental Farms and now world famous, has successfully invaded South America, being grown in the Argentine Republic last year with results that, according to authorities there, exceeded the expectations of the most optimistic advocates of the grain. Further shipments of seed are being made to the Argentine by the Canadian Seed Growers' Association.

One of the most diverse and interesting aggregations of passengers ever assembled in Canada left Montreal for Europe on August 20th aboard the Canadian Pacific liner Minnedosa. It included Majors S. de Beires and Brito Pais, who recently flew from Lisbon to Macao, China, a large party of scientists returning from the recent convention of the British Association for the Advancement of Science at Toronto, Colonel Geo. Ham, genial and internationally known "ambassador of the Canadian Pacific" and "Soldier" Jones, Canadian heavyweight boxer.

The first all-British direct cable service between Montreal and London was opened on August 18th by the Canadian Pacific Telegraphs. As business warrants, this service will be extended to embrace other Canadian cities with which it is now connected but which, as yet, cannot offer a reasonable return for a regular service. Messages were exchanged between the London Chamber of Commerce and the Montreal Board of Trade and between the Canadian and the English headquarters of the Bank of Montreal, conveying expressions of mutual goodwill and prophesying closer relations as a result of the improved cable facilities.

The splendid success attained by irrigationists in Alberta is evidenced by the last financial statement of the Taber Irrigation District. The report reveals a total surplus collectable or on hand of $80,000, of which $7,000 is on deposit in the bank. Operations have been so satisfactory that negotiations have been entered into with the Canadian Pacific Railway to set up a sinking fund of $3,000 to $5,000 to redeem bonds of the district held by the railway. In this way it is hoped that the district will be cleared of debt in a few years.

The Canadian Pacific Railway announces that it will resume its winter cruises in 1925, one round the world and the other to the Mediterranean. The 22,000-ton Empress of France has been selected for the former cruise, which will last four months and will completely encircle the globe. She will start from New York on January 27th. The ship has been recently converted into an oil-burner and entirely renovated. The Empress of Scotland, 42,500 tons, will make the Mediterranean cruise, lasting four months and including all points of interest on that sea.

The Trans-Canada Limited, the crack daily train of the Canadian Pacific between Montreal and Vancouver, and the longest distance and fastest long-distance express in the world, will resume service May 18th at both ends of the route. The running time between Montreal and Vancouver, formerly 92 hours, has been cut by two hours and the running time between Toronto and Vancouver, formerly 85 hours and 50 minutes, by one hour and 15 minutes. These cuts will benefit those going to Europe and the Orient.

Rev. and Mrs. Thos. Pierce attended the Clyde-Avery wedding at Knowlesville on Tuesday.

WEDDING AT KNOWLESVILLE

At 12 o'clock on Tuesday, Sept. 2, at Knowlesville, N. B., the marriage of Miss Jennie B., daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Avery, and Walter S. Clyde of Everett, Victoria county, was solemnized by Rev. Thos. Pierce, assisted by H. T. Tupper, theological student at Mt. Allison College, Sackville. The bride was attended by her sister, Lillie, and the groom by Charles Edgar of Three Brooks, Victoria county. The contracting parties stood under a pretty floral arch, the bride looking very lovely in a gown of white satin, with veil and a wreath of orange blossoms, and carrying a bouquet of white roses. Her attendant looked very pretty in a gown of pink satin with black lace hat trimmed with pink ribbons. She carried pink roses. The bride was a very popular school teacher. After a very delicious luncheon the bride and groom left by car for Newcastle to spend part of their wedding vacation. The bride travelled in a blue broadcloth suit, with hat of blue satin and toast colored velvet with plume and toast colored shoes and stockings. She wore a neck piece of Alaska sable. The groom's present to the bride was a string of pearls. A large and varied assortment of presents were in evidence.

The invited guests numbered over 160 and consisted of members of a large family connection. Very noticeable among the guests was the grandfather of the bride, Bradford Day, 90 years of age, who was part of a group of four generations photographed by the bride.

The happy young couple are coming to Hartland to reside.

IN LIGHTER VEIN

To the Thin—"Don't eat fast." To the Fat—"Don't eat. Fast."

Mrs. Neighbor: "But isn't your son rather young to join the Army?" Mrs. Malaprop: "Well, he is very young, but then, you see, he is only going to join the infantry."

Girl (addressing robust tramp)—Why don't you go to work? Tramp (looking hungrily around)—I would if I had the tools. Girl—What sort of tools do you want? Tramp—Knife and fork.

"You may refuse me now," said the persistent suitor, "but I can wait. All things come to him who waits!" "Yes, replied the dear girl: "and I think the first thing will be father. I hear him on the stairs."

Musician (doing badly)—Ah, gentlemen, if we all 'ad our rights, I should be ridin' in me own carriage as I 'ave done before. Sceptic—Yes, but your poor old mother couldn't push you now!

"Last night I woke up with the strange impression that my watch was gone," said Jim, "so I got up and looked."

"And had it gone?" asked George. "No, but it was going."

"You say that your friend speculated on a large scale," remarked the waggish one. "May I inquire what was the use of the large scale?"

"Certainly," returned the cheerful guy. "He needed it to weigh the consequences."

Little Rosie had heard that Yarmouth was noted for curing herrings. "Oh, mummie," she cried, suddenly, "how funny it must be to see all the poor little herrings sitting around getting better!"

"Ma'am, there's a man at the door with a parcel for you."

"What is it, Bridget?"

"It's a fish, ma'am, and it's marked C.O.D."

"Then make the man take it back. I ordered trout."

An old Irishwoman sent a parcel to her son, in which she enclosed the following note: "Pat—I am sending your waistcoat. To save weight I have cut all the buttons off.—Your loving mother." "P. S.—You will find them in the top pocket."

Mr. Smith: "That horse you sold me is blind, and you never said a word to me about it!"

Mr. Jones—"Well, the man who sold him to me didn't tell me, either, so I thought perhaps he didn't want it known."

He employed every expedient he knew to make the kettle boil.

He burned up a great quantity of adjacent furniture without success. He almost demolished the kitchen in an unfortunate experiment with kerosene oil.

Finally, to his chagrin, he was obliged to call on his wife. She showed him a scheme he had not thought of at all.

She put some water in the kettle.
