THE BAND plays at Lower Sackville
Saturday night.

THE HERBERT arrived safely in New York Sunday morning and reports all well.

THE EXAMINATION of Charles Thompson at the suit of Josiah Wood before Hon. A. D. Richmond, Commissioner for New Brunswick was concluded in Powell's Hall on Saturday.

LOTS OF SAND.—Schr. Geneste, Reid, New York entered yesterday with 100 tons moulding sand and 100 tons hard coal for the Enterprise Fd'y. Co.

SACKVILLE SPORTSMEN report game on the opening day of the season in fair quantities but not sufficiently abundant to warrant a divide. May better luck attend their next efforts.

A GROWING INDUSTRY.—Mr. James McIntosh, foreman of James R. Ayer's tannery paid the Post a visit on Monday on his way to Point du Bute to purchase cattle hair to be manufactured for cushion stuffing. It is carded, baled and curled, and the demand far exceeds the possible supply. When prepared it is worth twenty-five cents per pound.

MR. ALLISON.—A meeting of the building committee was held Tuesday night in H. A. Powell's office to determine the kind of stone to be used in the Lodge and to consider plans for the new act building.

MISS GOODWIN, Queen's University 94, is pursuing her studies at Mt. Allison and teaching classes at the Ladies College.

MR. YOUNG is fitting up offices in the Commercial Building to serve as bank and emporium for commercial students.

About forty men are at work on the cellar for the new lodge and it is already well advanced. The men labor at C. Fawcett's Foundry boarding house.

C. W. Doull, the contractor is to be congratulated on the fine appearance of the new cellar in the Academy dining hall. The work has been done carefully and neatly done and only the best material used. The dining room has also been tastefully papered.

The Academy staff is rendered complete by the return of Prof. Dalpe and wife who have been spending the summer at their home "Ramon Poma" near Quebec.

Mr. George Blaney who has been working in St. John; B. W. Josiah who will give lectures in commercial law with O. W. Coates of Blair-Verte, cynicism professor.

SACKVILLE AHEAD.—Sackville is always prepared to outdo any other town in the Province in anything from soft Aeolian breezes down to trotting horses and patent back action sidewalks, but a night blooming cereus in the possession of Mrs. James Dixon has, we believe, capped the climax and thrown all other glories in the shade. This plant, which is as beautiful as it is remarkable produced two fine blossoms on Tuesday afternoon just ten hours before by all known laws of nature and Haysle it was noted to perform any such action. It would perhaps be too much to ascribe this remarkable precocity entirely to the healthful air of Sackville; it might be admitted that the plant is the first of its kind and receives excellent cultivation; but at the same time it is evident that a cereus with a Transatlantic wind at its back must stand a good chance of getting ahead of the ordinary cereus. Mrs.
Dixon very kindly presented the Post with one of the blossoms and a more beautiful flower has certainly never entered our somewhat sombre office.

VIOLATION OF THE GAME LAWS.—Before Stipendiary Magistrate Cahill two complaints were laid against Robert Oulton of Pt. de Bute for violation of the game law, one for shooting wild black duck, one for shooting snipe.

Two similar complaints were made against Albert Wells for shooting wild black duck and snipe, and one against Elmer Dixon also of Pt. de Bute for shooting wild black duck.

The charges against Robert Oulton and Albert Wells were dismissed, for shooting wild black duck were dismissed, for not being sufficient proof. For shooting snipe the cases were closed and the Magistrate took time to consider and adjourned till 10 a. m. to-day. The case of Elmer Dixon was adjourned to be promoted by Dr. Allan of Amherst.

H. A. Powell appeared on behalf of prosecutors; Ritchie Dixon, J. P. of Pt. de Bute for defendants. The conduct of the witnesses was very much the same as in Scott cases, being characterized by shortness of memory, inability to identify the parties charged, etc. The fact unknown that several boys and youths about Beach Hill and other outlying districts of Sackville have been violating both game and civil law by shooting partridge on Sunday. Respectable people are taking steps to have a stop put to this disgraceful state of affairs.

Koonan who received her salary of $200 per month, has secured a position as teacher on the Winnipeg city reserve at $300 per month. The exodus from the Maritime Province to the West is not as unaccountable in some cases as it has appeared.

—D. C. McDonald who has been day operator at the I. C. R. station for two years has been moved to Oxford Junction and went to his new position on Monday. "Mac" has made many warm friends in Sackville who will be sorry to learn of his departure. Mr.
James Forbes the night agent takes his place and the Dorchester night man succeeds Forbes.

SHOOTING ACCIDENT.—On Saturday afternoon a son of F. W. Egnerson of Petitcodiac, aged 13, was severely wounded by the accidental discharge of a shot gun while he was playing.

THE ST. JOHN'S SAYS.—"The St. John's market is getting to be a place of beef chiefly from Western Canada and at present and very fine beef it is too.
Some cattle are being brought here from Cumberland County and from Annapolis."

BEFORE JUDGE LANDRY.—At Dorchester on Friday last before Judge Landry, Charles S. Turner vs. Chipman Landry, re: review from Parish Court, Harvey, Albert Co. Verdict was entered for defendant on a set off; plaintiff reversed it on the ground that the jurisdiction of the court as to the residence of the parties had not been proved, the defendant having taken that objection in the court below. The Judge ordered the verdict for defendant to be set aside and a verdict of nonsuit to be entered instead as defendant can bring a new action. On costs of review. J. W. Dickson appeared for plaintiff; M. G. Teed for defendant.

11th, the winter arrangement goes into

GAME LAWS.—Some of the provisions of the game laws are as follows:—"Black duck, wood duck and teal may be shot from 1st September to 1st January.

Partridge, woodcock and snipe, from 20th September to 1st December. Penalty for shooting these birds before above dates, not exceeding $10 nor less than $4 for each bird; on default of payment of fine, imprisonment in common goal for not more than four or less than two days. Penalty for shooting on the Sabbath or Lord's day, not exceeding $20 nor less than $5 for each offence; in default of payment, imprisonment in common goal not exceeding ten nor less than five days. Penalties to be recovered by process of law, and one-half amount of fine to be paid to the in-former."

THE BRIDGE.—A comfortable temporary bridge has been built near the river for the men who are to work on the bridge. A cartload of plank has been thrown over there and it is probable that work will soon begin. Meanwhile the bridge continues to tip up river. Strong brags have been placed from the top of the south pier to the upper work of the bridge.
Traffic over the bridge continues in spite of its dangerous condition.

SCOTT ACT SINES in Moncton, last month amounted to $300.

CAPT. CURRY of the Salvation Army desires to express his thanks to the many kind friends of Sackville and Bala Verte, for so generously helping him with gifts that made the Harvest Festival so successful.

LOSS BY FIRE.—On Wednesday, Pinquey Boyce, of Murray Road, Albert county, lost two fine barns with all their contents, including a threshing machine, by fire. The barns and contents were insured.

PLASTER DISCOVERY.—A valuable discovery of plaster has been made on the Southern slope of the Caperebuda, about 3 miles from Spencers Island, Camberland. The property has been taken up by Messrs Muir & Kirk.

FROM APPLE RIVER.—The barque Granada is loading here for C. T. White with lumber for South America. Mr.
White has saved this season 4 millions and expects to saw 2 more. He intends constructing a wharf to facilitate the shipment of his lumber and also building a saw mill which is much required along the Joggins shore.

FROM A PRINTERS THANATOSIS.— So'tive that when they summons come to join the great majority, the editor can write up an obituary that will be a pleasure to the friends to read, without having to his like blazes in his thousands effort to stretch the solitary virtue till it covers up the multitude of faults, streaks of cussedness—Danville Breeze.

DECEMBER AND MAY.—Evan Mc-Donald is a contractor, belongs to Truro and is over 70 years of age. He last week married a young girl named Miss Neville, just past "sweet 20". The wedding took place at the church at Dorchester, Colchester Co. and everything passed off in "apple pie" order.
"All the world loves a lover," and we join wishing the young couple many years of happiness.—Picton Standard.

SMALL PAY.—The Italian bark which sailed a few days ago is run on a cheap scale. The sailors receive thirty cents per day and find their own food. The captain would not even buy water, as is usual with all vessels visiting this port, but made the crew carry it from a spring on the shore. There was not a man aboard able to speak the English language.—Richibucto-Cor. Sun.

FIRE AT SHEDDIAK.—Fire started at Sheddiak about noon on Tuesday in a tenement house occupied by John Nelsonson on Main Street. Two other buildings were burned, a blacksmith shop and a barn belonging to the tenement house. Deputy Sheriff Sweeney's dwelling and the offices of Dr. Bellevue and lawyer Russell also burned. The fire was got under control after about two hours; the extent of the insurance is not known.

THE ART GALLERY.—Our last issue referred to the changes in progress in Victoria Hall. These alterations are now completed and paintings in oil, water, and black and white, decorate the walls while groups of statuary tastefully arranged enhance the pleasing effect.
Occupying the centre of the platform directly in front of the organ is a photograph in sections of the art institution at work. This has a famous picture on each side on the right "A Political Discussion" by A. Stanick, Munich; and on the left "At Work" by J. Lewis Webb, New York. A large collection of black and white original sketches and drawings, and reproductions of the old masters in oil, and in other parts of the hall. Notable among the pictures on the side of the hall nearest the Ladies College are "The last steps" by L. Welden Hawkins painted in juxtaposition with Jean Francois Millet's "First Step"; "The Shepherdess" by Wyatt Eaton, New York; "Study of a Head" by J. H. Galt, Boston; and "Light and Shade" by W. W. W. W. W.
Prominent upon the opposite side is a large oil painting by Francois Millet, Paris, representing "Cattle being Driven Home before a Coming Storm".
This was exhibited in the Paris Salon.
Near it is another by the same artist a son of the celebrated Jean Francois Millet entitled "Retourning Home". This was exhibited in Paris Salon.
There are also near at hand Henry Simpson's "Beach at Scheveningen", exhibited in the Royal Academy in 1884 and two good examples of Studies of Heads by Wyatt Eaton, New York, who by the way is Canadian born, the first that of a Frenchman painted the second of a peasant girl. Most conspicuous at the rear of the hall is "The Old Net" by Smith-Held, Paris, from which the large picture in the palace of Luxembourg was painted. This is however considered finer than the copy. It represents a luminous beautiful evening.
There is a long low streak of fading crimson where the sun went down. A fisherman's daughter stands out in the golden glow bury with the net which she stretched upon the wet and the water lags lazily on the beach. At its side is hung "An Intruder" a fine painting by an American Fred K. Jungling and "Sunday Morning" by the same artist who painted "The Old Net". There are also three fine copies of famous paintings of the old masters. No. 49, after Van Dyke's celebrated "Portrait of the Unknown Gentleman" in the National Gallery, London; No. 50, after Leonard Da Vinci's famous "Mona Lisa" in the Louvre and No. 51, after Raphael's "Portrait of a Gentleman" in the Louvre. These are very superior copies and of great value. Altogether the paintings in oil and water which adorn old Lingley number about 50 but this is not an exhaustive list of the entire collection.

Not less interesting and beautiful is the collection of statuary, the finest perhaps that not the largest in Canada. At the left and of the stage facing east is a full size reproduction of the Venus de Milo marble in the Louvre, which was discovered in 1820 by a peasant on the Island of Milo. He was digging near some sepulchral grottoes when the earth suddenly gave way and this Venus was found in a cave with a Mercury and some pedestals. Some critics think it not a Venus, but the Wingless Victory that once stood in the temple of Nike at Athens, and was sent to Milo at the time of a threatened invasion. On the opposite side of the stage is a life size reproduction of Diana Hale, by the artist Robing Diana, a statue which also takes its name from the place where it was found in 1792.
This is perhaps the most beautiful reproduction of the original. In point of modern group, purity of expression and the exquisite lines of drapery, it has no equal.
The thirty-two casts are all exhibited in the Hall, representing for examples The Fighting Hero or Gladiator; Antious, Locomo, Venus de Medici, and a large variety of busts from antiquity.
Diana the Huntress is not set up in the hall.
