Ald. Camp and Young Are Successful in Elections

Small Vote Polled in Contests in Two Wards—Good Government Association Candidates Defeated Some Fiery Post Election Speeches Made

The civic election in Fredericton yesterday, resulted in the election of Ald. C. C. Camp in Carleton Ward and Ald. H. M. Young in St. Ann's Ward.

Not much more than one-third of the eligible vote was polled and Ald. Camp secured a large majority over Charles R. Howie, but the contest between Ald. Young and Ald. R. J. Baxter was closer, the former winning out by only 29 votes.

The defeated candidates were those running with the endorsement of the Good Government Association, while Ald. Baxter, president of the Labor Council, and Ald. Camp had the endorsement of the Labor Council.

The complete return of the vote follows:

Some Speeches Made.

After the results had been announced by City Clerk Perkins there was some speech making at the City Council Chamber.

Ald. Camp was the first speaker and he opened his remarks by attacking W. M. Burns, secretary of the Good Government Association, whom, he said, he had told that it was not his place to meddling in civic politics inasmuch as he was a school teacher and as such a public official.

Ald. Camp stated that he was in favor of "good government," which consisted of the impartial enforcement of all laws, including the prohibitory law, and he referred to the over-expenditure in the Roads and Streets department, or which he was chairman during the past year, saying that part of the money allotted for permanent roads and streets was being used for the coming year had been included in the 1920 accounts of expenditures.

Ald. Baxter, the defeated candidate for St. Ann's Ward, stated he was glad to be relieved and as he had given six years in the service of the city as an alderman, he felt he could now have more time at home with his family. He felt that what he had said about citizens buying coal by the barrel and sometimes getting 1,700 lbs. for the ton had hindered him in the election rather than helped him.

Ald. Young felt satisfied that having carried on as an independent for two years the people had gotten the idea that he had taken a fair stand in the deliberations of the Council and had returned him to power because of that.

Ald. H. P. Baird, elected by acclamation for the one year term in Carleton Ward, stated that the honor had been thrust upon him and that he did not know whether he had been sent to the Council by friends or enemies; he thought it might be the latter, judging by some of the remarks which were being made. The position would be a burdensome one, he knew, but he felt it his duty to undertake it and to keep the best interest of the citizens always at heart. He wanted it understood that when the G. G. A. had endorsed him there had been no strings attached, not even in the matter of the Police Commission. He congratulated the citizens upon the decorous proceedings and stated that he could not help but remember an election thirteen years ago when what he had taken place at the City Hall would have been a disgrace to a western mining camp. Something was responsible for the change and he thought credit ought to be given to the Good Government Association. It had stood for the carrying out of the Prohibition law in its entirety and he stated that personally, he had no respect for the man who would trade upon the moral weaknesses of another.

Ald. Neill congratulated the successful aldermen. He regretted that Ald. Baxter had been defeated and stated that some arrangement might have been made whereby both Ald. Baxter and Ald. Young could have continued at the Board. Ald. Baxter, he stated, had proved a good and level headed alderman and he would be missed. He stated that he was pleased to note the stand which Ald. Baird had taken with regard to the prohibition enforcement and would regret to see any alderman enter the Council who was opposed to the enforcement of prohibition as he knew the whole Council would be opposed to any such person. No one in the Council was opposed to prohibition. It was true that in the past year some criticisms had been levelled at the Police Commission but these were for the benefit of the citizens. He referred to the Good Government Association, stating that it was all for the good of the city and that it was for four or five men to get together and call themselves an association, and look up candidates. He knew of several men who had been approached by the G. G. A. to offer as candidates and the only pledge asked of them was that they would support the Prohibition Act. The support of no other law was asked and the pledge had [Port Fairfield, N.S., Review.] Potatoes were up very considerably the last of the week. This week they have gone higher still. This Wednesday $2.50 a barrel was paid not seldom, and one load went for $2.85. The general price, though, is from $1.50 to $1.75, which is about as high as the present market price warrants as the local buyers in paying. No other place has been paying as high as Port Fairfield. The buying at most of the outlying villages has been nearly at a standstill, but rather lively in Port Fairfield village. Eight factories in the Aroostook Valley are now receiving potatoes, as follows: Goodwin Starch Company's and C. S. Osborne's, in Port Fairfield, two in Limestone, one in Caribou, two in Presque Isle, and the prices at the factories run from 20 to 25 cents.

Potatoes
