The Emeralds.

These professionals had fair prospects for a crowded house last night. On Monday nearly all the reserved tickets were sold as well as many admission tickets. It looked about the time we went to press as if they would have a bumper house. They appear in the Temperance Hall, Millerton, this (Wednesday) evening, and then proceed to St. John.

Presidential Election.

The presidential election in the adjoining republic takes place on Tuesday next, Nov. 8th. Both parties expect to win, and express the utmost confidence in the result. WASHINGTON LETTER.

(From Our Regular Correspondent.)

Washington, Oct. 24, 1892.

This is an age of discovery. If any impetus to the unravelling of mysteries had been lacking the spirit of Columbianism of this month had supplied the necessary boom. It is not surprising, therefore, that the year 1892 should mark the discovery of the reason of the interjection of the force bill figment into the campaign. To be sure, thousands of people had been wondering about it. But nobody had solved the problem. It was left for Hon. Whitlaw Reid to do this in his letter of acceptance. To begin with, he gives a new intent to the late force bill in intimating that it was designed to prevent force at elections and fails to explain why the bill was killed in the Senate by Republican votes. In fact he is not quite certain that there is any reason for the bill as a campaign issue, no doubt having the lengthening shadows of the recent Alabama elections in mind. 'But,' he adds, 'it is not to be disguised that the recent clamor against this principle, if it means anything, means a purpose to nullify the fourteenth article of the Constitution of the United States.' This is an extraordinary find. Does the Republican candidate for the Vice-Presidency really imagine that any party is seeking to nullify the fourteenth amendment? The Democratic party is certainly not looking that way, in spite of random utterances of ephemeral statesmen. Mr. Reid should try again. There are more weeks in which the guessing may continue, and before another discovery is heralded abroad care should be taken that no mare's nest is uncovered.

Probably next spring some time the grounds that will surround the buildings to be erected for the Methodist University, or American, as it is named, will be improved. It is the intention to carry out the plan of the landscape architect of the Capitol, who has visited the property and made a study of best method of treating it. Of course it is not the purpose to erect any buildings just at present, for the reason that the trustees of the university have decided that only structures worthy of such an institution shall be built, and they find that the great Methodist Church, through the general conference, indorse this view. It will require a large sum of money to put up the buildings that will be needed and while there is no doubt that the necessary funds will be secured, yet the collection will take time. While the fund is reaching the proportions that are believed to be necessary before entering upon the work of building it is the intention to lay out the grounds, reserving suitable sites for the proposed structures and planting trees and shrubbery. In the event that it will require several years to raise the money, the trees and shrubbery will have a start and the surroundings of the proposed university will be improved.

Judge Cooley's son had denied that his father has any intention of voting for Cleveland, and now comes Judge Calkins who claims to have received a letter from Judge Gresham in which he denies the statements that he would vote the Democratic ticket and take the stump against Harrison. He says that statements are unauthorized and purely gratuitous.' These two gentlemen should lose no time in announcing their position definitely. If they have decided to break from the Republican party, they should have the manliness to say so. Wayne MacVeagh has come out boldly and given his reasons for a change of heart. There may be no excuse for Judge Cooley's silence, for he is not in good health; but Judge Gresham owes it to his friends who have been faithful to him to state positively if he has come to the conclusion that he can no longer act with the Republican party.

Apathy in politics does not always mean lack of interest. The victories of the masses in the nominating conventions were an inspiration for them and has doubtless set them to thinking. Enthusiasm of a blatant sort does not assimilate with sober thought, and that is the reason for lack of overwhelming applause as indorsement of the pyrotechnics, persiflage, and partizanship of the average political appeal. Facts not flights of the imagination are in demand, and where they may be obtained are carefully digested, breath being saved for the final hurrah in November after the elections. The spread of the system of secret ballot may diminish the size of vest-pocket vote, but it is also a most effective method of swelling the sound of the voice of the people which they have reached during the apathy of the campaign.

The views of the complexion of the next House entertained at the different political headquarters in this city are not unanimous. The Democrats are certain of a good working majority, the Republicans would not be surprised to secure control, and the People's party leaders are confident that they will therefore be able to organize the House? All the headquarters here are engaged in receiving reports from the various Congressional districts, and the managers are awaiting with some curiosity and anxiety the result of November 8.

AN ANGLO-CANADIAN MIRACLE.

AN INTERESTING LETTER FROM ACROSS THE ATLANTIC.

Mr. James Ingram Relates the Story of His Sufferings and Release—Restored After the best Doctors had Failed.

The fame of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills is not confined to Canada and the United States, but extends also across the Ocean, and from the mother land comes a letter from one who learned the value of this great remedy while in Canada and who now, although thousands of miles away gratefully acknowledge what Pink Pills have done for him after medical aid and all other remedies had failed. His letter cannot fail to bring hope to other sufferers as it assures them that in Dr. Williams' Pink Pills they may look for a cure even in cases pronounced by the most eminent medical specialists as incurable.

Rhiorderen Monmouthshire, Eng.,
Nov. 20th, 1891.

To the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co.,
Brockville, Canada.

Gentlemen,—It may surprise you to receive this letter from across the Ocean, but I would not be doing my duty did I not write to thank you for the noble medicine called Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People, and to let you know what they had done for me after four years suffering, and when all other medical aid had failed. My trouble occurred while in Canada, and I was treated by several doctors and in the Montreal General Hospital by Drs. Smith, Molson and Macdonell. I first felt the effects of the disease, which the doctors pronounced diabetes, in January, 1886. I used many remedies and tried numerous doctors, with the only result that I grew poorer in both health and pocket. At last in despair I went to the General Hospital for treatment, but the result was no better, and on the 30th of April, 1891, I left that institution a poor broken-hearted, downcast man, Dr. Macdonell having informed me that they had done all they could for me. I continued to live on in misery until about the middle of August, when I saw in The Montreal Star an article telling the story of a man who after spending hundreds of dollars, had tried Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and found a cure. Drowning men, they say, will catch at a straw, and it would be impossible for me to express the gratitude I feel for the hope that man's story gave me, I at once bought a box of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills from Mr. R. Birks, druggist, on McGill street. Before I had finished it I felt that Pink Pills were helping me, and I procured four more boxes. These almost restored me to health, and through the kindness of Mr. O'Brien of the harbor works, I was given a light job on the harbor wharf, and was again able to earn my living. I made up my mind, however, to return to the land of my birth, and on the 5th of November, sailed for England. The passage was rough, and I caught cold, which set me back somewhat, but I am again regaining strength. I find that I cannot get the Pink Pills here and I want you to send me a supply, as under no circumstances would I be without them, and you may be sure I will gladly recommend them to my friends both here and elsewhere.

Yours gratefully.

JAMES INGRAM.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are a perfect blood builder and nerve restorer, curing such diseases as rheumatism, neuralgia, partial paralysis, locomotor ataxia, St. Vitus' dance, nervous headache, nervous prostration and the tired feeling therefrom, the after-effects of la grippe, diseases depending on humors in the blood, such as scrofula, chronic erysipelas, etc. Pink Pills give a healthy glow to pale and sallow complexions, and are a specific for the troubles peculiar to the female system, and in the case of men they effect a radical cure in all cases arising from mental worry, overwork or excesses of any nature.

These Pills are manufactured by the Dr. Williams' Medicine Company, Brockville, Ont., and Schenectady, N. Y. and are sold only in boxes bearing the firm's trade mark and wrapper, at 50 cts. a box, or six boxes for $2.50. Bear in mind that Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are never sold in bulk, or by the dozen or hundred, and any dealer who offers substitutes in this form is trying to defraud you and should be avoided. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills may be had of all druggists or direct by mail from Dr. Williams' Medicine Company from either address. The price at which these pills are sold make a course of treatment comparatively inexpensive as compared with other remedies or medical treatment.

I. C. R. SEASON TICKETS.

Yearly patrons of the Intercolonial railway are raising a lively row over the discontinuance of their season ticket privileges and a big racket is in store for somebody if the authorities of the road do not speedily announce their policy in this regard. Already a couple of racy telegrams have been sent. One to the Minister of Railways demanded an "immediate" arrangement for the sale of season tickets at an equitable figure. The only reply from the minister was a telegram that mileage tickets could be bought at the usual low rate. This rate is two cents a mile and to residents of Hampton would mean 88 cents per day for the trip in and out, or about $260 per year. Under the old ticket arrangement, which by all is admitted to have been very low, the yearly rate to Hampton, giving unlimited trips, was $27. The residents of that quiet village would not kick if the rate was advanced to $50, but it is doubtful if they would pay more than that for the privilege of living in the country. As a reply to Minister Haggart's telegram a strong letter was sent to him threatening the defeat of Minister Foster in Kings and the support of about one hundred voters to the Liberal candidate in the St. John election if a suitable rate is not at once announced.

What effect this letter will have on the minister it is impossible to say, but in the meantime the public might be interested to know that some of those who sanctioned the letter are among the most ardent supporters of the old flag and the old policy. They are 'truly loyal' but do not hesitate to talk desertion when their pockets are touched. The other telegram was an expensive one. It was to the Minister of Finance in London and cost $6.75 to send. He was threatened with political oblivion if he did not have the rate abolished. Perhaps this message will have some effect. The minister may be able to interfere with Minister Haggart in his policy of 'retrenchment and economy' on the I. C. R., but if, as some think, Minister Haggart is aiming at the premiership, he may hold on to his grip and thus rid himself of one of his opponents in the march for promotion. When the matter is finally settled the users of the road will have paid out a good round sum for fares and some special claims for compensation may be looked for.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 25, 2 a. m.—Mr. Harrison, wife of the President of the United States, died at 1.40 o'clock this morning. For sometime her case has been considered a hopeless one. Last evening Mrs. Harrison began to sink rapidly and shortly after midnight Dr. Gardner announced that death was liable to occur within an hour. She died at exactly twenty minutes to two this morning.
