

THE HAMILTON TIMES

SATURDAY, MAY 15, 1909.

BABY-SAVING.

Dr. Roberts, Medical Health Officer, is taking much interest in forwarding the cause of pure milk as a means of promoting infant health and reducing the mortality of the summer months.

Rochester in the ten years 1887-96 lost 7,451 children under 5 years; in the following ten years (in which time the city's population had greatly increased), only 4,965.

Prior to 1886 some attention had been given to the startling child death rate of July and August, and in that year the examination of the milk supply was begun.

Up to 1890 Pasteurization was practised. The milk was subjected to a temperature of 180 degrees F. for 20 minutes, then cooled and bottled.

The work is carried on from July 5 to Sept. 1, and about 40,000 bottles of milk are disposed of, the cost to the city being about $1,000.

In this way it has been found practicable to get a plentiful supply of pure milk, not subjected to Pasteurization or any form of sterilizing treatment, all of which injures it as a food for infants.

THE KINRADE CASE.

The Times cannot but think that much of the censorious criticism of the Attorney-General's Department in connection with its conduct of the Kinrade murder inquiry has been due to misapprehension of the situation and to lack of appreciation of the difficulties against which the Crown has to contend.

Dealing with a murder case of this kind is not the simple and easy matter which some people take it to be. In every case in which human life is placed in jeopardy, the law very properly requires that a perfect chain of evidence must be presented in order to succeed in securing a conviction.

justify a judge in sending it to a jury or would warrant twelve good men and true to bring in a verdict of guilty? Let the reader calmly consider it.

Precipitancy in this matter would be a great blunder. Much effort has been devoted to the preliminary work of the inquiry, and under circumstances of no little difficulty.

IT STARTS WELL!

The Greater Hamilton meeting in the Board of Trade rooms yesterday afternoon was one to encourage to hopefulness in the success of the movement to effectively bring Hamilton's claims as a manufacturing and business centre prominently before the world.

No paid man, no matter how capable he may be, can accomplish much unless he is able to arouse the sympathy of the entire community, and the community means not only the business men and women, but, above everything else, the growing boys and girls.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

One thing about the Canadian Club which none will dispute: It knows how to pick its presidents.

This reflection on "city officials" and "city employees" is grossly unfair to the men who do not deserve censure. The men intended to be reproved should be specified.

Instead of the quarter of a million or so immigrants from Germany which the United States used to get annually, 20 years ago, they got less than 20,000 last year.

Inspector Hughes, of Toronto, replies to the prattle of the Toronto Telegram about the Public school pupils not being able to spell by inviting him to enter a spelling match "with say a Third Book class," and offers him the privilege of appointing his own judges!

GRIMSBY AND BEAMSVILLE.

Fruit Prospects Seem Brighter Than Ever This Year.

Season Is a Little Backward, But Most Promising.

Cases to Come Up in Court in Grimsby Next Week.

(Special Despatch to the Times.) Beamsville—Rev. Judson Kelly, Hagersville was in town on Wednesday.

Mr. Thomas Mulvey, K. C., Assistant Provincial Secretary, has been appointed Under Secretary of State at Ottawa, and will shortly leave to assume his new duties in succession to Mr. Joseph Pope, who becomes Under Secretary of the Department of External Affairs.

Speaking of the now admitted advantages of the city's power contract with the local electric company over the Hydro estimates, the Herald regrettably says: "Still, it is impossible for the Herald lightly to put aside its preference for the principle of public ownership and operation of public services."

The Toronto Telegram harks back to the commutation of the sentence of Shortiss, the Valleyfield murderer, saying that "it is to be hoped that rumor was mistaken" in charging it to Aberdeen.

Mr. Shaw is going into Mrs. Ismond's house. Harry Prudhomme's condition is much improved to-day, and his relatives and friends are being relieved of their anxiety.

CUR EXCHANGES

COLORED HIGHLANDERS. (Toronto Star.) Several colored men are anxious to join the 48th Highlanders, under the impression, no doubt, that it is the Black Watch.

CULINARY ITEM. (Toronto News.) In every luscious dough-nut A yawning hole is found. You ask me why? 'Tis round. To put the dough around.

MR. STUDBOLME. (Peterboro Examiner.) Why doesn't the Mail and Empire get Sir James Whitney to make Mr. Allan Studholme, the labor member for Hamilton, Minister of Public Works in his Cabinet?

DODGES CHALLENGE. (Toronto Telegram.) Oh, that these columns should live to be told that they cannot spell as fast as a 'Tird Book class: "Take back them cool words, Mr. Hughes."

GREATER HAMILTON. (Stratford Beacon.) Hamilton has a flourishing "Greater Hamilton" Association, and Brantford is agitating for one. Why should not Stratford have such an association? Let us not lag behind our neighbors in the struggle for advancement.

A BROKEN REED. (London Free Press.) The Toronto World says it has not hesitated to point to the guilty person in the Kinrade case, and suggests it is the duty of the Crown to make an arrest. In which event, the Crown might make a mistake if it relied upon the World producing the evidence necessary to secure a conviction.

HOW IT WAS WORKED. (Vancouver Sunset.) The Dreadnought fussiness was inaugurated by speech and seconded by toadies. There was neither patriotism to Canada, loyalty to Empire nor coolheaded thought in the fussiness. It does not represent Canadian opinion in Vancouver. Those who took part in it will be glad if it is forgotten in three months, as it undoubtedly will be. And those gentlemen who were inveigled to orate in the City Hall have no doubt regretted it in their heart of hearts since Mr. Wade, of all the speakers, was the only one who took sound ground and that was in line with the action of the Canadian Parliament, including both sides of the House.

PASSED EXAMS. Among the successful students at the University of Toronto examinations were two Burlington boys, Tracy E. Freeman and Harvey G. Davis, both former Hamilton Collegiate Institute pupils. Both passed their final mechanical and electrical engineering exams.

BORN IN STATION.

Son Comes to Western Farmer Just After He Crosses Border.

Toronto, May 15.—Coming to Canada with her husband, his mother and father, Mrs. Emma Van Amburg, of French River, Minnesota, gave birth to a bouncing ten-pound boy at one of the stations en route early yesterday morning.

Though urged to remain over Mrs. Van Amburg pluckily continued her journey and reached Toronto. She was attended by a physician in the ladies' waiting room of the Union Station, and was afterwards taken to a rooming house.

The husband, Charles Van Amburg, was delighted with the new boy, and he went into ecstasies over his future home. "People on the other side," he said, "talk about God's country. Here it is. I never saw such fine farms before." He was glad his first son was Canadian born.
