Thoughts on Tendencies.

That error is going on... gathering strength; though checked, not discredited in disposition, but schemes are, and is determined to push on in her course.

There is evil, much evil tendency in the world; yet, beyond all controversy, there is much good—an earnest of more to come.

Literary Notice.

MEMOIR OF REV. JAMES MACGREGOR, D.D., by his grandson, Rev. George Patterson. Published by Joseph M. Wilson, Philadelphia; and for sale by George T. Hazard, Charlotteville.

This work is now before the public. Written by a Clergyman in the neighboring Province of Nova Scotia, it is properly a Colonial production.

In the preface, after stating the considerations which induced him to undertake the work, the author frankly acknowledges that he has devoted to it, not his leisure time, but his business hours.

The following statement from James R. Chilton, M. D., of New York City, after a thorough examination of the subject, leaves no doubt in any reasonable mind of the intrinsic virtues of your preparation, or its value as a reliable medicine.

Dr. Macgregor visited this Island in 1791. He remained about six weeks, and was actively engaged in preaching the Gospel, and observing and discharging the duties of his sacred office.

The closing chapters of the book do not contain so many accounts of missionary journeys as the preceding ones; but they abound in notices of the arrival and location of other laborers, with, sometimes, rapid sketches of their character and abilities.

Dr. J. C. AYER, Lowell, Mass., U.S.A. writes: In compliance with the request of a gentleman, I have the pleasure to state that having used your CATHARTIC PILLS in my family, I have found them superior to any similar effects to any other purgative we have ever employed.
