

ta (?) he and his men were unexpectedly fired upon from the houses of the slave-traders there. Thirty of Baker's soldiers were thus slain; the remainder entrenched themselves till assistance could be obtained, and then issued from their entrenchment to attack the traders who held a strong position in dense thickets of reeds. The attack was very successful, the reed beds were taken by storm, and 140 of the slavers' party were slain, many prisoners being also captured, while the remainder fled inland. The captives, in explanation of the attack made upon Sir Samuel's command, said that the orders of their masters and of the friendly chiefs were to kill the "Nazarene"—meaning Baker—wherever and whenever they could. They all confirmed this declaration, which was drawn up from their own mouths, signed and sealed by each, and then forwarded to the Government of Soudan, at Khartoum, as a documentary proof of the malignancy of these slave-hunting merchants.

POLITICAL ARRANGEMENTS IN THE INTERIOR. The term of the contract signed by Sir Samuel Baker and by the English engineers with the Khedive has now expired, and, having made all arrangements, the Pasha embarked at Gondokoro in one of the steamers brought up by the expedition. Another vessel of the same model has been successfully carried as far as Gondokoro, and as soon as camel transport can be obtained it may be taken to the lakes, and set afloat there. The third of the three iron vessels sent up in pieces with the same object lies yet at Khartoum, the difficulties of transport having proved extremely great. Next to Fatiko, the chief station of the new territory will be Gondokoro. Baker has marked out eight more spots as principal posts, and these will constitute a chain leading from Nubia to Albert Nyanza. One thousand additional troops have been ordered down to complete the garrison of the stations.

The Reserve Dividend System

Is one more step in the march of progress. Presented only after mature thought, it invites the test of the severest scrutiny. Its chief merit is its PERFECT ADAPTABILITY to the wants of insurable lives. The RESERVE DIVIDEND and RESERVE ENDOWMENT POLICIES originated and published by the Company's Actuary, under copyright in 1869. The principle involved renders every form of insurance a provision in life. It converts an ordinary life Policy, otherwise payable only in the event of death, into a CASH ENDOWMENT, MATURING EVERY TEN YEARS.
