At The Federal Capital

The parliamentary week ending Saturday, June 19th, was productive of a large amount of legislative work in the House of Commons and marked a very considerable progress in the sessional programme.

The greater portion of the sittings of Tuesday, June 15th, was devoted to further consideration of the luxury tax schedule, in connection with the Finance Minister's budget proposals.

Minister made many changes, to meet, as far as might be reasonably possible, the requests of members and business firms, but of course, as all will readily understand, it would be impossible for him to meet the desires of everyone.

Other matters of considerable importance discussed and passed upon in the Commons during the week were: the bill introduced by the Prime Minister to restrict exporting any commodity from Canada whenever the Government might find it necessary and also consideration of estimates for the Militia Department.

Montreal, June 28.—Tragedy broods over Vaudouil tonight owing to the virtually wiping out by drowning of a prominent Westmount family who were staying there for the summer.

Party Ends in Tragedy Montreal, June 27.—One woman was killed, a baby fatally injured, another woman may die, and two others were slightly injured when the floor of a third story balcony collapsed last night at 8.45 in Mount Royal Avenue, East, this city.

During the greater part of the session a special committee of members of the House of Commons had under consideration recommendations for increases and amendments to the Pension Act, through which those wholly or partially disabled in consequence of their participation in the war, and the widows and orphans and other dependents of these, and of those who lost their lives in the war, are provided for.

Los Angeles, June 26.—Twenty-one business buildings in the town of Inglewood, ten miles southwest of here, were practically destroyed, the place was deprived of light and gas, and scores of dwellings were seriously damaged.

A Serious Clash

St. John, N. B., June 27.—A collision between a customs officer and a motor truck was the cause of much excitement last night at Milltown, N.B., and may result seriously for the driver of the truck.

Drowning Of Westmount Family

Montreal, June 28.—Tragedy broods over Vaudouil tonight owing to the virtually wiping out by drowning of a prominent Westmount family who were staying there for the summer.
