

Leoburn. LATE FLOWING.—A McAllister plowed and with his team on the last day of 1884.

ELECTIONS.—The municipal elections for this township were pretty lively this year for deputy-reve.

SERMON TO CHILDREN.—On Sunday next Rev. T. M. Campbell, of Goderich, will preach a special sermon to the Sabbath school children, and familiar hymns will be sung by the youthful congregation.

SCHOOL TRUSTEE ELECTION.—John Linklater's term having expired as trustee for S. S. No. 5, he did not again offer for re-election, but resigned in favor of James Kirkpatrick, who was opposed by T. Watson.

OBITUARY.—It is with heartfelt regret that your correspondent records the death of Frederick Horton, at the early age of 38 years, after a illness of five weeks, from a fever.

I. O. G. T. ENTERTAINMENT.—Last Friday evening drew a fair audience to the entertainment of I. O. G. T. lodge No. 213.

A Story With a Sequel. On Wednesday last week a most daring robbery was perpetrated near the village of Arthur, in the county of Wellington.

The Paris Temps says:—The recent victory of Gen. Negrier near Chu is the prelude to the offensive action. Gen. De Lade has resolved to occupy Langson without awaiting reinforcements.

A Terrible Death. A Panama despatch says: Senor Iridio Vidal met his death in this city a few days ago under most peculiar circumstances.

New York, Jan. 7.—The following is published: "New York, Jan. 6. 'MY DEAR SIR,—Through press and otherwise I learn that you, with four other friends of mine, are engaged in raising subscriptions for my benefit."

New Proverbs. A white lie often makes a black story. It's a poor musician who can't blow his own trumpet.

How and the Weather Proves It. The man who believes he can forecast weather can't see the squaring of a pig, or the phases of the moon, is not more ignorant of facts than he who believes that it is right to perpetuate a social system which gives wealth and command to a hereditary class, and poverty and inferiority to the masses.

FIVE YEARS FOR ARSON.

Working of the Scott Act in Halton Co's. Milton, Jan. 7.—Some weeks ago people in the vicinity of Georgetown were alarmed by the burning of several buildings, evidently the work of an incendiary.

The prisoner was tried here today before County Judge Miller, and when confronted with the evidence pleaded guilty and made a full confession. He states that he was hired to commit the arson by two brothers named Gibbs, who had decided to revenge themselves in this way on prominent supporters of the Scott Act.

Innocence and Ignorance. There is so much said about wishing to keep the children in "innocence and ignorance." I think it a pity that they are not better instructed concerning the world in which they are to live, and the natural laws that govern their being.

Death at an Oyster Supper. Wardsville, Ont., Jan. 7.—At an oyster supper held here on Monday James Wells, who was furnishing music from a tambourine, fell dead in his chair.

THE WORLD OVER. As Mirrored in the Columns of our Outside Contemporaries. President-elect Cleveland's resignation of the office of Governor of New York was presented to the Legislature on Tuesday.

THE PHILADELPHIA RECORD is responsible for the daring assertion that Santa Claus is the greatest class in the unwritten constitution. The complaint which resulted in the death of William Johnston, formerly president of the Ontario agricultural college, and at one time secretary of the Reform Association of Ontario, was Addison's disease, which particularly affects the nerve centres.
